At last year's Sophomore Orientation, Mr. Galloway took the microphone with senior Greg Hicks, as classmate Arlene Keifetz looked on.

Leon J. Galloway

Dedication

The field of education is a unique area in which to serve. To enter it, one must have the training of the "professional man" without looking forward to his large future monetary compensations. It means service to the community without great community prestige. Ask any teacher why he chose to enter the field of education and the only answer you can receive is "Because I enjoy teaching."

Last year two men with a total of seventy-four years of service to the Hicksville community left the High School. Mr. Leon J. Galloway, who had acquired twenty-eight years of teaching experience, rose to the position of principal in 1957. His colleague, Mr. Thomas H. B. Horne became assistant principal in 1950 after a lengthy and dedicated career as a teacher. Mr. Galloway has now assumed the job of district administrator and Mr. Horne has chosen to return to private life.

We, as students, are now in a position to express in some small way our gratitude for their exceptional years of devotion to education. Hence, it is with a deep sense of respect that we dedicate this yearbook to these truly professional educators.

Thomas H. B. Horne

In Memoriam

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and

From September to June, the major portion of students' active time was spent in school or in school related events, like home football games.

New Team of

My congratulations to all Seniors on graduating in this year 1967. You have come to the end of a phase in life that I hope has been a most rewarding one. The "young years" may be remembered as the "best years" as you move through the rest of this Century.

Your education at Hicksville High School has only been the opening to a way of life. The opportunities for employment, service to mankind, and for happiness are never ending in our society today. The first problem confronting many of you now is how to fit into this vast place called "the outside."

My message to each of you would be this "set your goals — keep moving — and never quit." If you have a clear idea of your capability and are realistic about your objectives you can afford to dream about the future. May I wish all of you the best of fortune and the success you deserve.

School Administrators Assumes Office

Immersed in the problems of running the school, Mr. Rusch spends many hours working at a full desk.

Mr. Rusch and Mr. Olvany replaced administrating with the forward pass at football games.

During a break in open school night, Mr. Jones chatted with many of the visiting parents.

The hard day over, Mr. Olvany found time to relax with a long awaited pipe.

Mr. Feigin was obviously at ease explaining administration methods to parents.

Mr. Jaworski found much to smile about in the administration's successes.

The Busy World at HHS

Coughing carburetors are doctored daily down in 177. Next door in the carpentry shop, electric saws buzz deafeningly and fellows whistle. Meanwhile, the girls in Beauty Culture are engrossed in hair coloring experiments carefully executed so that only the instructor will know for sure.

These activities represent only a small portion of the varied vocational programs offered at HHS. The aim of the programs is to provide adequate training for those students who intend to enter employment after graduation. To insure that they meet with success, students enrolled in the vocational programs are required to spend three hours each day for two years learning and acquiring the skills of their individual trade. Courses in mathematics, science, history, and English round out the education that they receive.

Although this year they were relieved of the burden of printing the Comet Yearbook, the boys in Mr. Adam's Print Shop have been kept exceptionally busy preparing Senior Ball tickets, the school newspaper, and posters for "Oklahoma," as well as numerous releases from district administration. The boys do everything from the initial linotyping to the final print job right here in the school print shop.

In carpentry, as in all other areas, the emphasis is on doing. Building a garage out behind the football field offered the ideal opportunity to apply what had been learned in class to an actual construction situation.

The auto mechanics program benefits the school in two ways. The boys gain experience, and the faculty receive free repairs. What better way is there for a student to display his know-how than to overhaul the principal's car? This in-school training is often augmented by outside employment at local service stations.

The theoretical study of electricity and opportunities for exploring various wiring methods are all part of the curriculum of a student who enrolls in the Electric Shop. There, careful attention is also given to the local laws governing the installation of electrical equipment.

A student may discover that his natural talent lies in creating ultra-modern habitats. This is a matter easily reconciled, since HHS is equipped with an Architectural Drafting course. The guys and gals are involved in class design and construct models of homes and commercial buildings. Upon completion of the two-year program, they are qualified to become tracers, detailers and draftsmen.

Not to be outdone by the boys, the girls can enter either the Beauty Culture program or the Occupational Nursing program. Beauty Culture requires 1000 hours be spent in work on physiology, hygiene, facials, hair styling, cutting, and coloring. Occasionally a manicure may be performed on a lucky, or game, faculty member. The course is complete when the girls pass the N. Y. State Board Exam and obtain their operators licenses.

Occupational Nursing represents a new addition to the vocational program at our school. Each morning for two and one-half hours, Hicksville students work at nearby hospitals. Their official status is that of Nurse's Assistants, but the on-the-job training and the experience they acquire are of much greater magnitude.

Anthony Weippert begins construction of a new project in wood shop.

PRINT SHOP JUNIORS—SEATED: Barry Kalmaer. STANDING: Peter O'Malley, Charles Puccio, Thomas McBride, Ed Radwinski, Herbert Rau, Arthur Wood, Tom Jones, Robert Izzo.

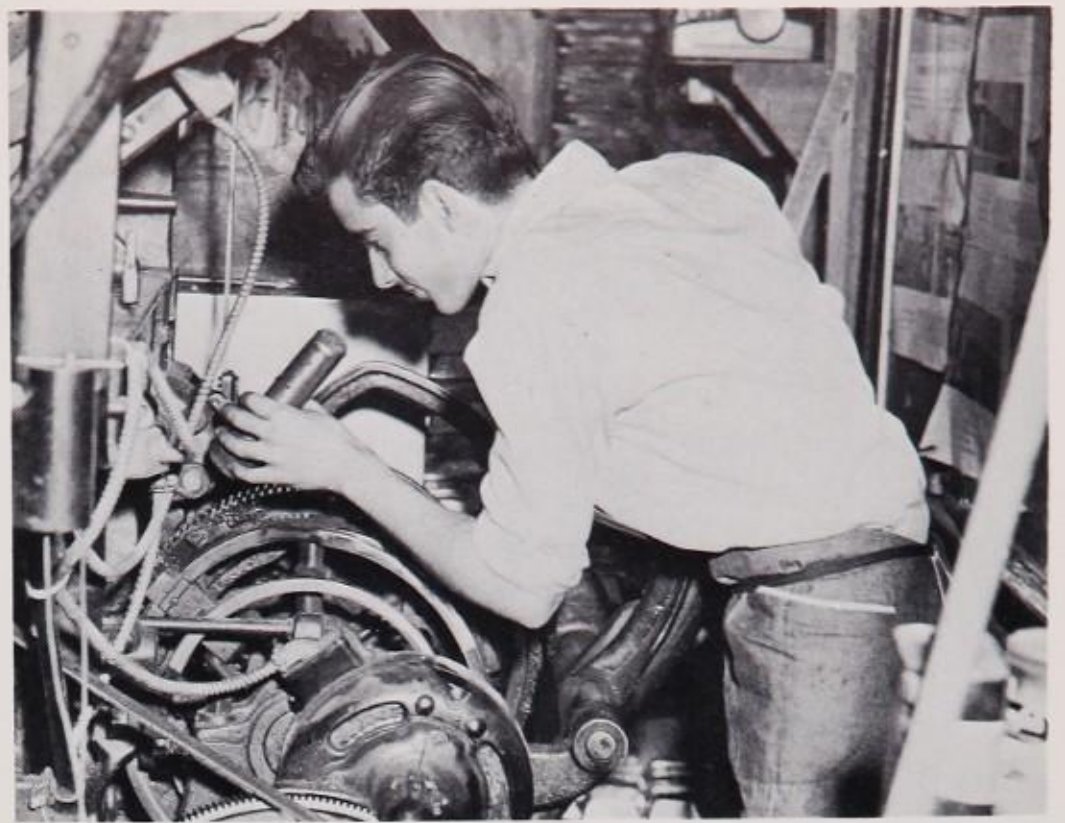

After drawing the blueprints, Pat Torres, Frank Yacovone, Richard Hermann, and Richard Labanowski built this model house.

The vital components of a mechanical drawing class: a T-square, a ruler, and a patient student (Danny Merrill).

Print Shop senior, Michael O'Brien, could be found inking the rollers of an offset press.

With maintenance always important, often used equipment, like the linotype, needed constant inspection by students like senior Frank Rinaldi.

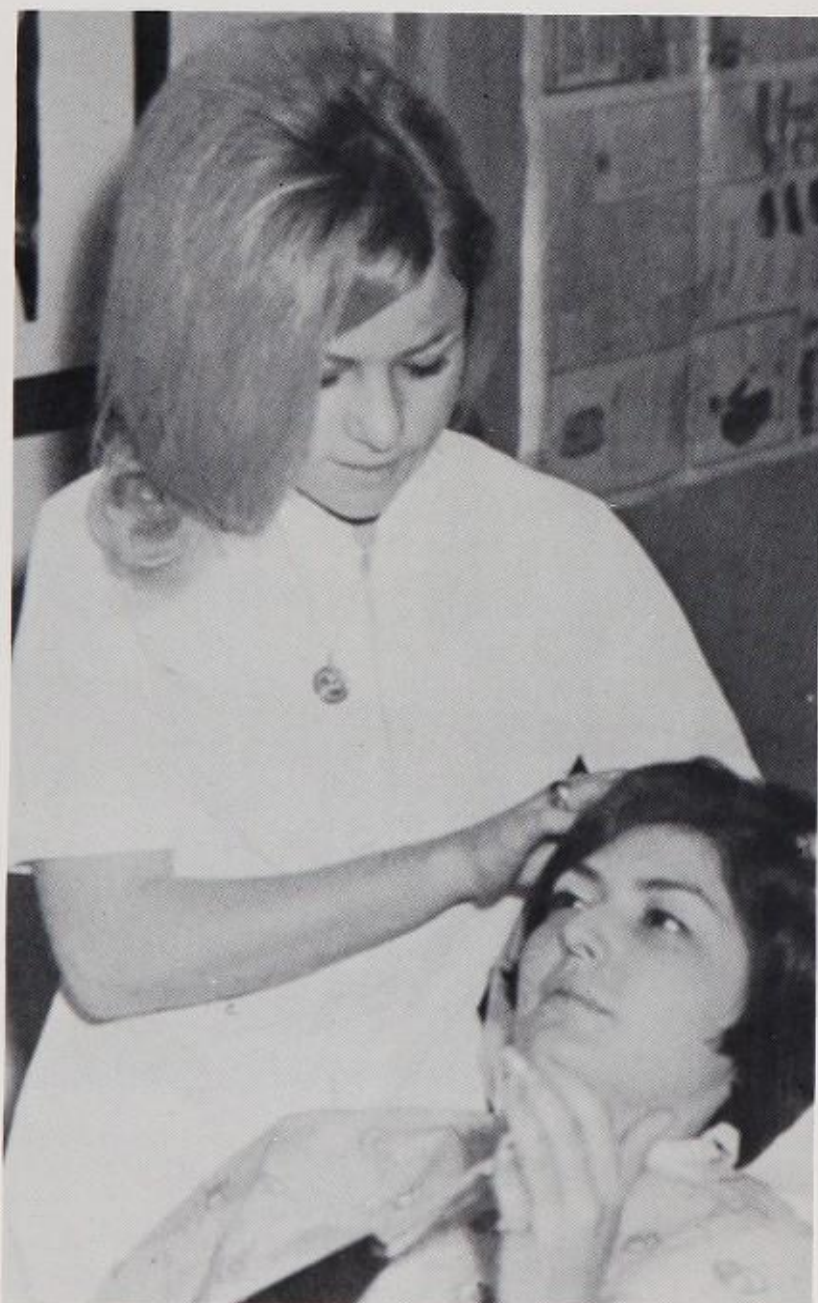

Stripping the insulation off a wire, Electric Shop student Robert Jerabek prepared to make a connection.

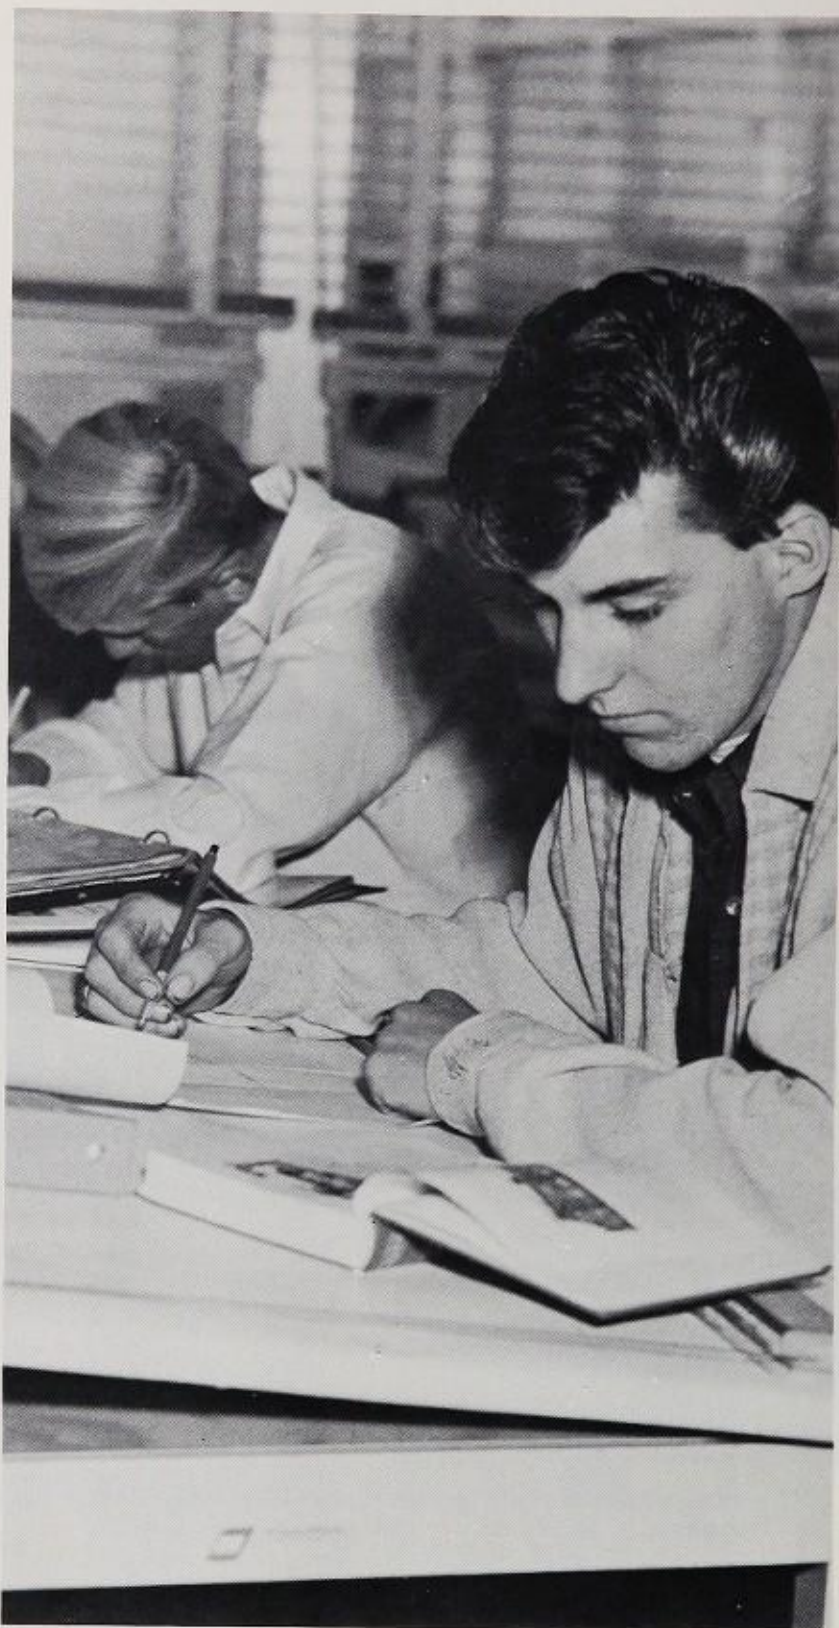

To brace a framework in the building of a garage, John Trela and Gary Kiriewsky often had to work outside.

In Miss Mills' Beauty Culture class, Lorraine Tully practices the mystic art of applying daytime make-up on Sue Kessler.

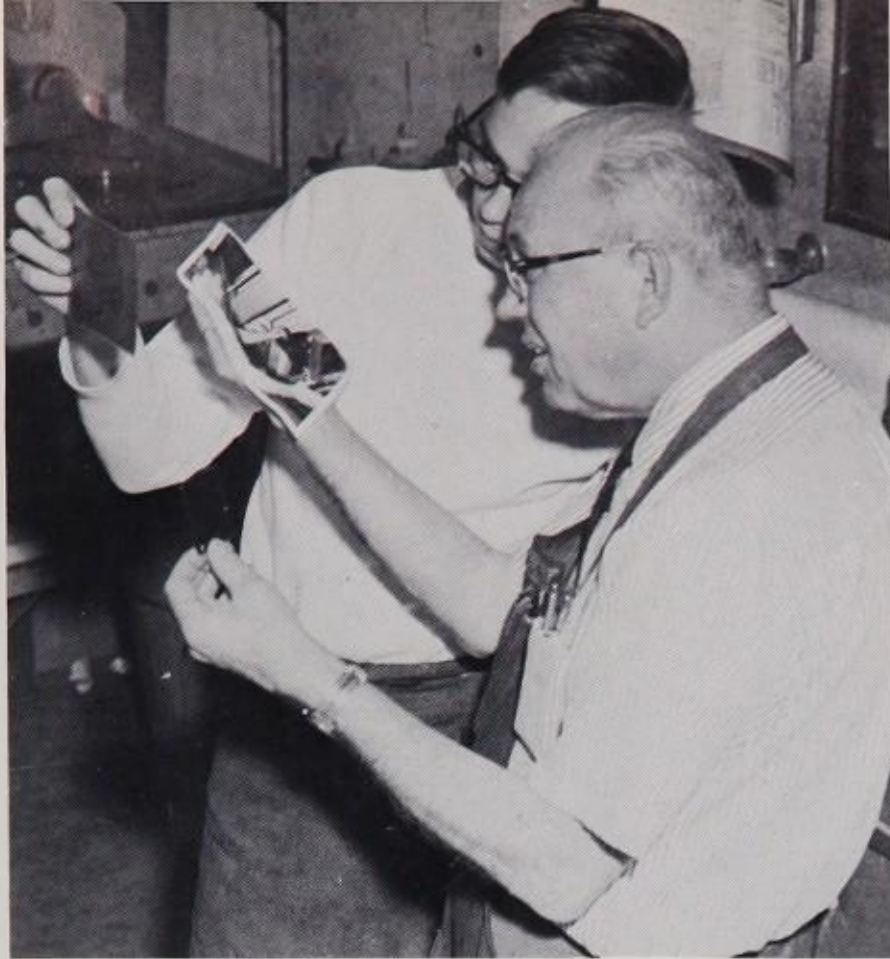

The concentration needed in Architectural Drafting class was demonstrated by Richard Letcher.

At work at the buzz saw, senior Al Rowland cut a type slug for the Particle.

Mr. Adams and Jamie Holder checked prints with their negatives to develop quality of darkroom skills.

Making a needed adjustment on the shop Graflex, Lenny La Feir used his photographic ability during the year for school publications.

In a day's work at the Print Shop, Bert Jantzer ran off proofs to check the accuracy of set type.

Don Swallow often worked at the new offset press, cleaning the rollers and preparing plates for runs.

All galleys being worked on in the Print Shop were carefully filed in racks, so that a student like Ed Markunas could easily find the one he needed.

In the frightening world under the hood, Jerry Calandrillo delved into the maze of wires and parts, repairing engines in Auto Shop.

Keeping up with the classwork, K. C. Jones copied a diagram into his notes.

With a practiced hand, Barbara Ciel practices a high fashion comb out on fellow senior Dotty Burmann.

As James Iannone watched, Jim Lien used a coping saw to make a curved cut in a board for a construction project.

Bill Clark, who spent much of the year in the darkroom, is shown taking a line shot of an edition of the Comet newspaper out of the hypo solution.

Carefully applying nail polish, Maureen Steines added the final touches to a completed manicure..

With the patience and steadiness needed for work on circuits, Jim Kristensen carefully handled the soldering iron.

Never to be forgotten moments of cafeteria cuisine.

Always important to students were the daily announcements.

A swinging song shouted out at a school dance was a call to action that exemplified all Hicksville activities.

The days that make us happy make us wise.

John Masefield

From the busy and demanding world of dramatics . . .

. . . to pep rallies and class functions, exciting events made life this year at HHS a spirited one.

Year Opens with a Flurry of New Events

The Wizards worked their magic to steal the ball and the game.

I should only believe in a god who knows how to dance.

Nietzsche

Many of this year's early activities were new activities, reflecting the new look of the school. The Battle of the Bands in September drew a great response from both the bands and the student body. These open auditions for school dances brought new faces and excitements to the auditorium. The top four bands chosen played at events all through the school year.

The first home football game, October 22, was also brightened by new ideas. Senior home-rooms elected their Homecoming Queen, Pam Raab, with Sue Foy and Lynn Van Wickler, the runners-up, serving as ladies-in-waiting. Our team capped the occasion by obliging the girls with a victory.

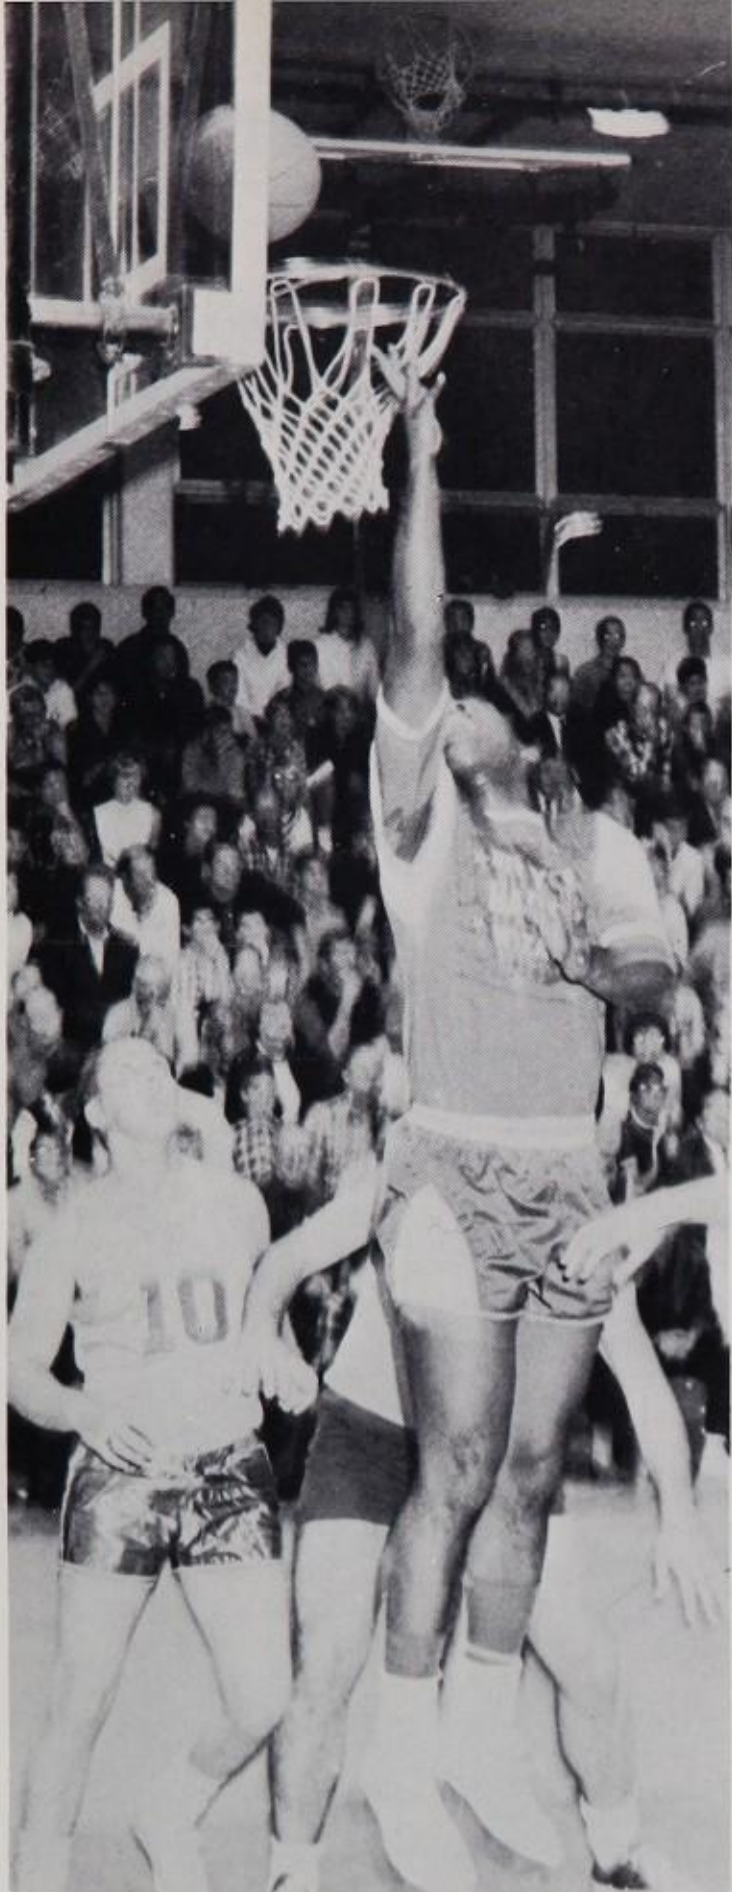

Many victories later, the same people could be found dancing to the Gremlins at the first senior sponsored activity. The Victory Dance, combined with their undefeated season, inspired the football team to raise their voices in melodious harmony.

Another kind of harmony was displayed in the Boys' Gym on November 25. The Harlem Wizards, in a game sponsored by the Dad's Club, dazzled the spectators and opponents alike with their co-ordination and final score. HHS and HJHS faculty composed the home team, with Mr. Alfieri and Mr. Umbria pacing the hard and hilarious battle.

Rising above opposition, Wizard stretches to make two points.

Corridors Become

During the last week of September the students of HHS cast their ballots for class officers. There were the familiar posters on walls and stairwells imploring the student body to vote for Experience and Responsibility. Colorful homemade buttons pinned on pocketbooks and shirt collars and plastered on notebooks served as reminders to vote for the candidates who had captured the fancy of particular segments of the student body.

The election procedure was handled by the Election Committee of the ASC, which required that anyone seeking a class office had to file an application for that office. A primary election then determined the candidates who would appear on the final ballot.

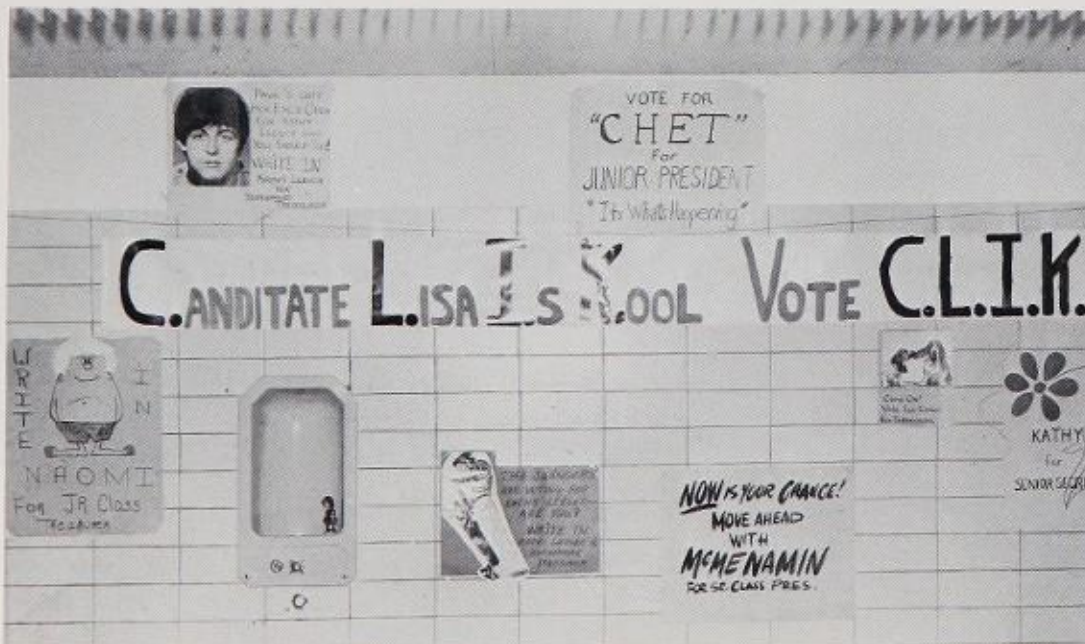

In the senior election, the results showed a mixture of old and new faces. Brian McMenamin won in a three-way race for president. Richard Kramer, who had served in his sophomore year as a class officer, returned as senior vice-president. The post of secretary was filled by Kathy Thompson, and perennial victor Nick Saman defeated his opponent for the office of treasurer.

Despite a poor initial response to the business of elections, the junior class did come up with a capable slate. The final tally showed Chet Schnepf as president, Britton Lindquist as vice-president, and Dave Fyfe and Patti Schwartz as treasurer and secretary, respectively.

In the sophomore class, Gary Hodges won the presidency and Linda Burnett was elected vice-president. Glenda Miranda won to become the new secretary, and Hope Lambert as treasurer completed the sophomore slate.

Speeches accented this year's elections. Here Pat Morris takes a stand.

The words of the prophets and candidates were written on the high school walls.

Pete Arakas applies his advanced math in tallying election results.

Unlimited posters added flavor to the campaigns and the walls. Steve Kahn and Rick Fordyce adjust their contribution.

'Oriental Splendor' and Night made Seniors'

A squad of students devoted themselves to creating the "splendor in the gym." Beautiful oriental decorations helped create a mystic mood for the dance.

The queen of the Prom, Linda Perkins, and her ladies-in-waiting: Arlene Cohen, Nancy Assante, Marianne De Pietra, and Pat Morris, contributed splendor of their own to the oriental backdrop.

Sailor Jack Burke swept the floor with milk-maid Randa Globerman.

Dave Federbush cooperated with Arlene Cohen in the ticklish pass-the-orange game.

Masquerade at Their Junior Year Memorable

Dancers who were there will remember the Junior Prom even without queens or themes or decorations.

Principal Leon Galloway led dancing with Prom Queen Linda Perkins.

Characters from the junior class ranged from a prize-winning cave woman to a moose.

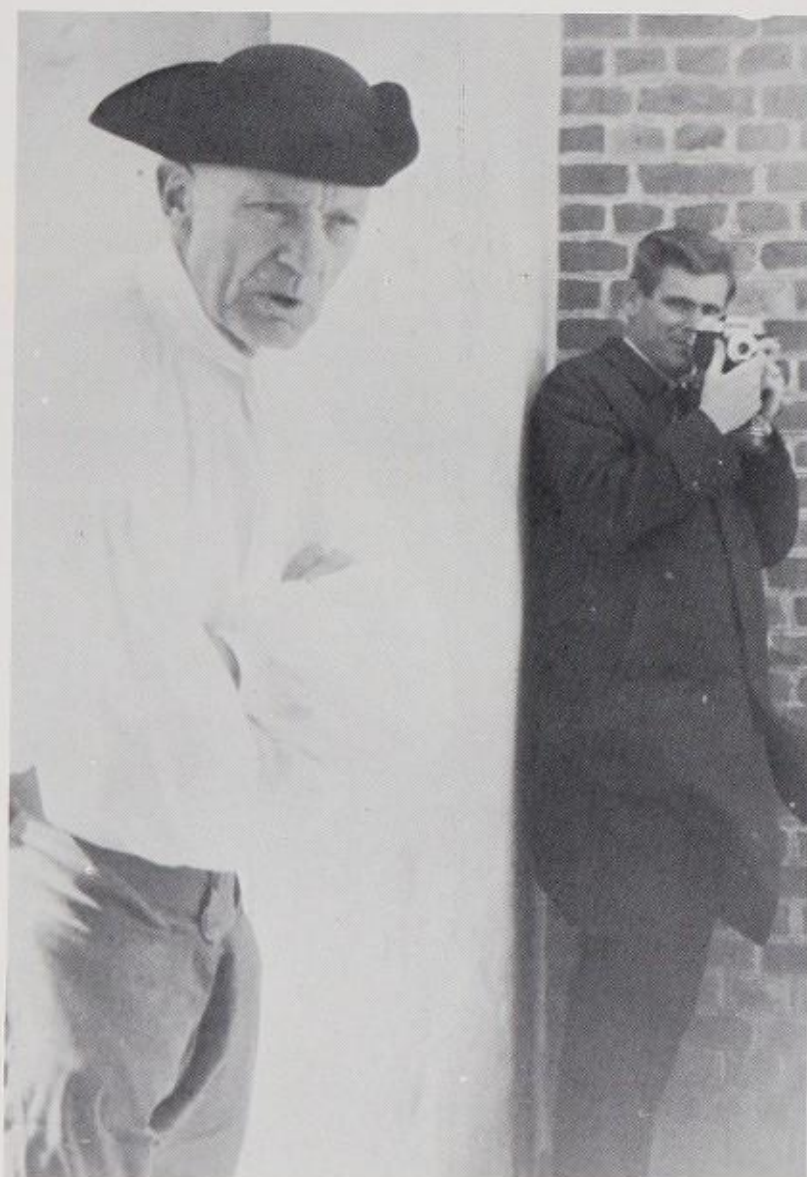

Fraternity brothers tried their hand at leading cheers from the kookie crowd that April night.

Hicksville Seniors Invaded Washington

In a solid mass, stiff seniors rose from the train to change to buses for the final leg of the journey to Washington.

Trudging through mounds of snow, 411 luggage-laden HHS seniors boarded the train at Hicksville Station early Thursday morning, March 16, to begin the unique experience known as the Senior Trip. Receiving their "Snoopy" senior pins and settling in their seats, the group's ride to Baltimore included excited conversation, visiting friends, or sleep. Box lunches digested they departed at Baltimore, and after a mad scramble to chose buses, began the first day in Washington. Stops included the FBI Building, the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the National Archives, and the Washington Monument, where rather than take the elevator, a few hardy souls braved all 898 steps. Dinner followed, and a "Coke and snack" party which lasted until midnight, but other various late night activities were watergun fights, dodging bed checks, 2:00 a.m. push-ups, and marches around the parking lot.

Somehow seniors found time to eat during the hectic three days. Here Sandra Rosenblatt and Brian McMenamin digest a quick snack.

for a Three Day Spree

Lack of sleep and the long ride from Williamsburg wilted many seniors, like Chris McEntee and Pat Lance, who tried to rest between sights.

Friday began early, if not so bright, at 5:30 when the seniors boarded the buses to Williamsburg. Under the direction of informed guides, they toured the colonial town and got lost in the maze. Again chaperones were kept extremely busy that night, checking beds and salvaging rooms.

Saturday, the invading throng viewed the Capitol and the changing of the guard at Arlington, where a memorial wreath was laid at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. A visit to the Smithsonian Institute completed the stay, and the exhausted travelers trooped into the buses for the last time for the all-too-short ride to Union Station and the train home.

He who sleeps in continual noise is awakened by silence.

William Dean Howells

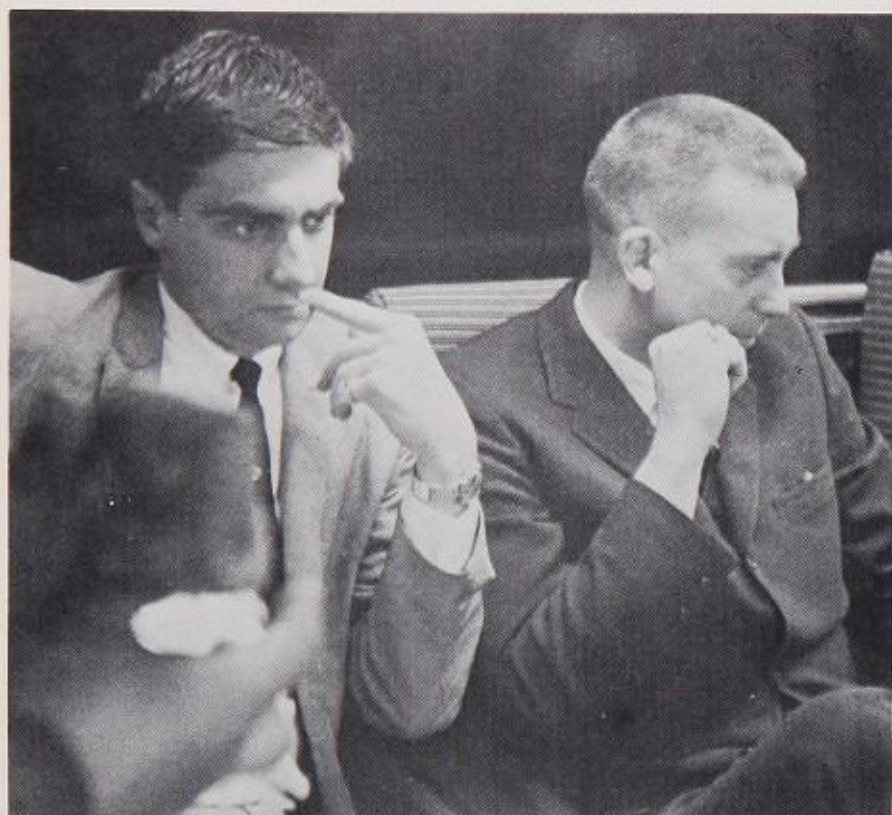

Hicksville's only jazz kazoo player, Steve Palley, added his buzz to the noise of the bus.

The marble steps between the buses and buildings created no obstacle for hale Hicksville High students.

Their ordeal soon to be over, Mr. Masi and Mr. Rusch reflected on the two sleepless nights they managed to survive.

Frat brothers created an explosive situation atop a cannon at Williamsburg, Virginia.

On behalf of the senior class, Brian McMenamin and Kathy Thompson laid a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

Among the litter of luggage, the visitors shared their impressions of Washington.

Small talk, visiting and general cordiality made the ride down a pleasant one.

After the first sleepless night, Paul Molinari, typical of his classmates, sat dazed in the hotel lobby.

Janet Miller could really sympathize with colonial offenders after trying out the stocks at Williamsburg.

Ingenious minds devised booby traps such as this electrified door knob to greet unaware bed-checkers.

With hundreds of cameras brought, pictures were taken at any time, anywhere, even on the train.

The "Commandos" supplied the beat for juniors' highly successful SJS Mixer.

Class of 1968

Animation and

From pep rally to Mixer to Junior Night, the juniors maintained a spirit of infectious enthusiasm through a score of activities. To spark the football season, they held the first pep rally, resulting in other equally exciting rallies.

Another first was the SJS Mixer, the year's first dance. Gym-packing crowds dancing to the "Commandos" made the Mixer one of the most successful in HHS history.

On the eve of a snowstorm in spring, costumed creatures found their way to the gym for "Junior Night". Camouflaged in everything from Campbell soup cans to dead leaves, juniors reverted to childhood for a night.

Class rings arrived late in March. Juniors fought unbelievably long lines to receive long awaited rings.

From any angle, ring fitting was a mammoth and confusing job.

Mark Messling and Joan Krakoff laughed their way out of the running in the pass-the-lifesaver competition.

Recovering from jumping rope, the courageous line-up at Junior Night prepared to tackle the next game.

Juniors lined the gym to hear their new principal and class advisor at reorientation.

Enter the Everpresent, Effervescent

Armed with student handbooks, sophomores entered orientation.

A new crop of sophomores flooded the lower halls of HHS this year. Almost immediately they demonstrated great enthusiasm and school spirit with solid support of SAT and record attendance at the Sophomore Hop.

Sophomore Orientation officially introduced the sophomores to the school's personality. Addresses by Mr. Rusch and the four assistant principals, as well as by student leaders, impressed the importance of class elections on the sophomores. In response, they elected Gary Hodges, Linda Burnett, Glenda Miranda, and Hope Lambert to the offices of president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer respectively.

Pumpkins and sophomores, October and enthusiasm. These were the ingredients that made the Sophomore Hop the great time that it was. The dance music of the "Nowhere Men" alternated with performances by a number of very talented students. Linda Burnett sang "Where is Love", Paul Jacobs sang and played the guitar, and Jan Sawtelle danced to "I've Got a Lot of Living to Do". The rendition of "Tonight" by Donna Grant and Cathy Carlson, accompanied by Pam McClain, complemented the mood of the evening.

Their first job done, sophomore officers relax at their Hop: Gary Hodges, Hope Lambert, Mr. Rusch, class advisor Mrs. Daly, Glenda Miranda, and Linda Burnett.

*All things considered,

'Madcap Variety'-- Talent and Fatman

Opening the show with style, the ensemble presented the many faceted "New York, New York" sketch.

Marty Kongressmen, Richard Rose and Fred Kurland "soulfully" moved the audience.

The quiet, enchanting grace of Lorelle Krogmann.

Record Crowds Greeted Comedy,

Flaring tempers led to hysterical pandemonium at the "Tic Toe Club," the highlight of the show.

A sensation in the courtroom, Eve Hachadoorian dazzled Jim Rubins and his attorney, John Dean.

Well, if he isn't a friend of mine either, then who is he? He's Cary Chalmers interrupting Gerry Cimino and Jim Rubins.

Comedy came to the HHS stage in February, as the senior class presented The Bachelor and the Bobby Soxer, the story of a high school girl with a mad crush on a carefree bachelor. Mixing her antics with a proper sister and an assortment of nutty characters, the plot built to a climactic, hilarious riot at a night club, finally, of course, culminating in a happy ending. Although the play was not a well-known one, the enthusiasm and competence of all the actors, under the guidance of Director Crucilla, made the evening thoroughly enjoyable.

'The Bachelor and the Bobby-Soxer'

'Twixt and 'tween judge and teen, Kevin Russell found life confusing, if not impossible, in the Turner household.

Causing all the trouble, Lorelle Krogmann played the swinging, mischievous Susan Turner.

Pleading his case to Susan's boyfriend (Chris McEntee), Richard Nugent desperately tried to remove himself from his embarrassing situation.

In a trail of splattered cakes, Sue Sherman stalked out, leaving a befuddled Jim Rubins.

Shining on the trumpet, Beth Goldmacher performed in the Brass Ensemble Christmas concert at the Administration Building.

Polished Concerts

Versatility and variety made for a musically successful year. Bands, choruses, orchestra, and recreational groups delighted audiences with performances of works ranging from early Renaissance to contemporary music.

In addition to the traditional winter and spring concerts, the Hicksville High School Band and Chorale entertained young musicians throughout the district with selections from their repertoire. A special guest performance at Portchester, N. Y., highlighted the busy concert season of the band.

Of great appeal to all ages were the Recreation folk concerts, under the supervision of Mr. Arnold. Singers offered contemporary and traditional songs, along with many original ones. Accompaniment ranged from the Jew's harp and wash tub to the traditional guitar and banjo, adding to the success of the folk singers.

*And your body is the harp of your soul,
And it is yours to bring forth sweet music.*

Kahlil Gibran

A concert every Saturday brightened the colorful football season.

Conducted by Mr. Goleeke at the Christmas Concert, the prize winning chorale gave another superb performance.

Highlighted Season

The guitar, banjo, and voices of Lea Santos and Naomi Drummond provided one of the most exciting segments of the Folk Concert.

Concentrating on his part, each member of the orchestra contributed to the overall effect.

Conductor Thomas Buttice drew sensitive response from the String Ensemble at the Winter Concert.

"... and a partridge in a pear tree . . ." Sopranos Bev Kaye and Virginia Christensen carolled an interesting arrangement of an old favorite.

Christmas Spirit, Familiar Faces,

Steve Goldstein, Class of '66, returned to HHS stage in the Tri-M sponsored alumni concert.

Hicksville High School alumni returned for the annual Senior-Alumni Day, December 22, the last day of school before the Winter Recess.

The alumni came in throughout the day, registered in the front lobby, and received visitors passes. Over one hundred fifty alumni returned, the majority from the classes of '65 and '66.

At 1:30 the Seniors were dismissed from classes, and the seniors and alumni both went to the boys' gym for the traditional alumni proceedings. The group was first addressed by Senior Class President Brian McMenamin who introduced Mr. Rusch. Mr. Rusch welcomed the alumni and expressed his hopes for this year's senior class.

Brian then returned to present the traditional gifts to members of the faculty with the assistance of Santa Claus Rick Kramer. Among the humorous gifts given were an enormous button reading "Down with Buttons" for button-lover Mr. McCarty, a bottle of "Four Roses" for Mr. Shanley, a bottle of Weight-On for Mr. Masi, and big wide eyeglass frames for Mr. Munch.

After the gifts were presented, a rock 'n roll band began to play, but few danced. Most preferred to talk to their old friends and former teachers once more.

A Christmas tree brightened the lobby. And it wasn't even plastic.

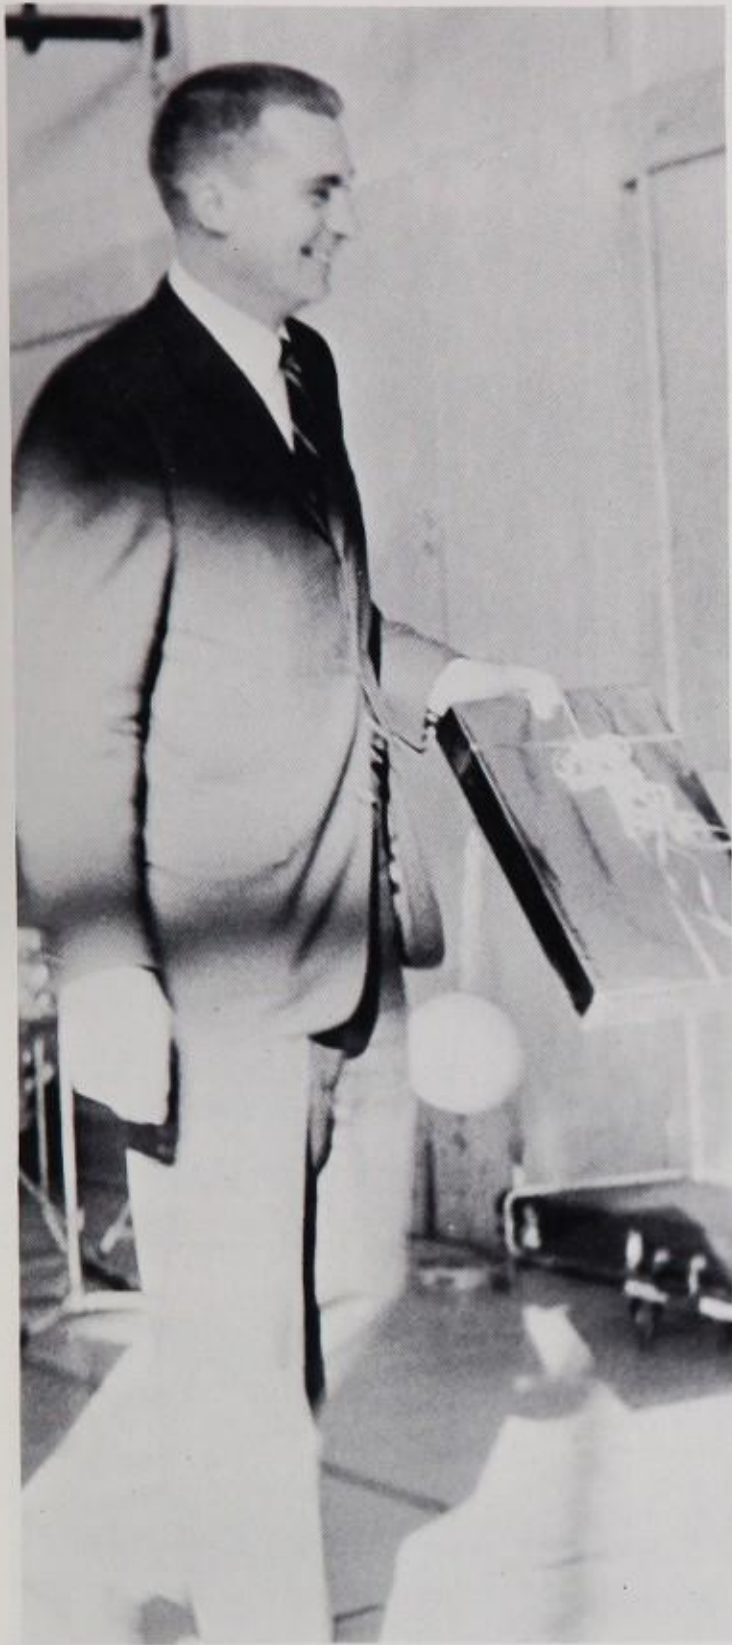

No one was left off Santa's list; Mr. Jones gets his (a present, that is).

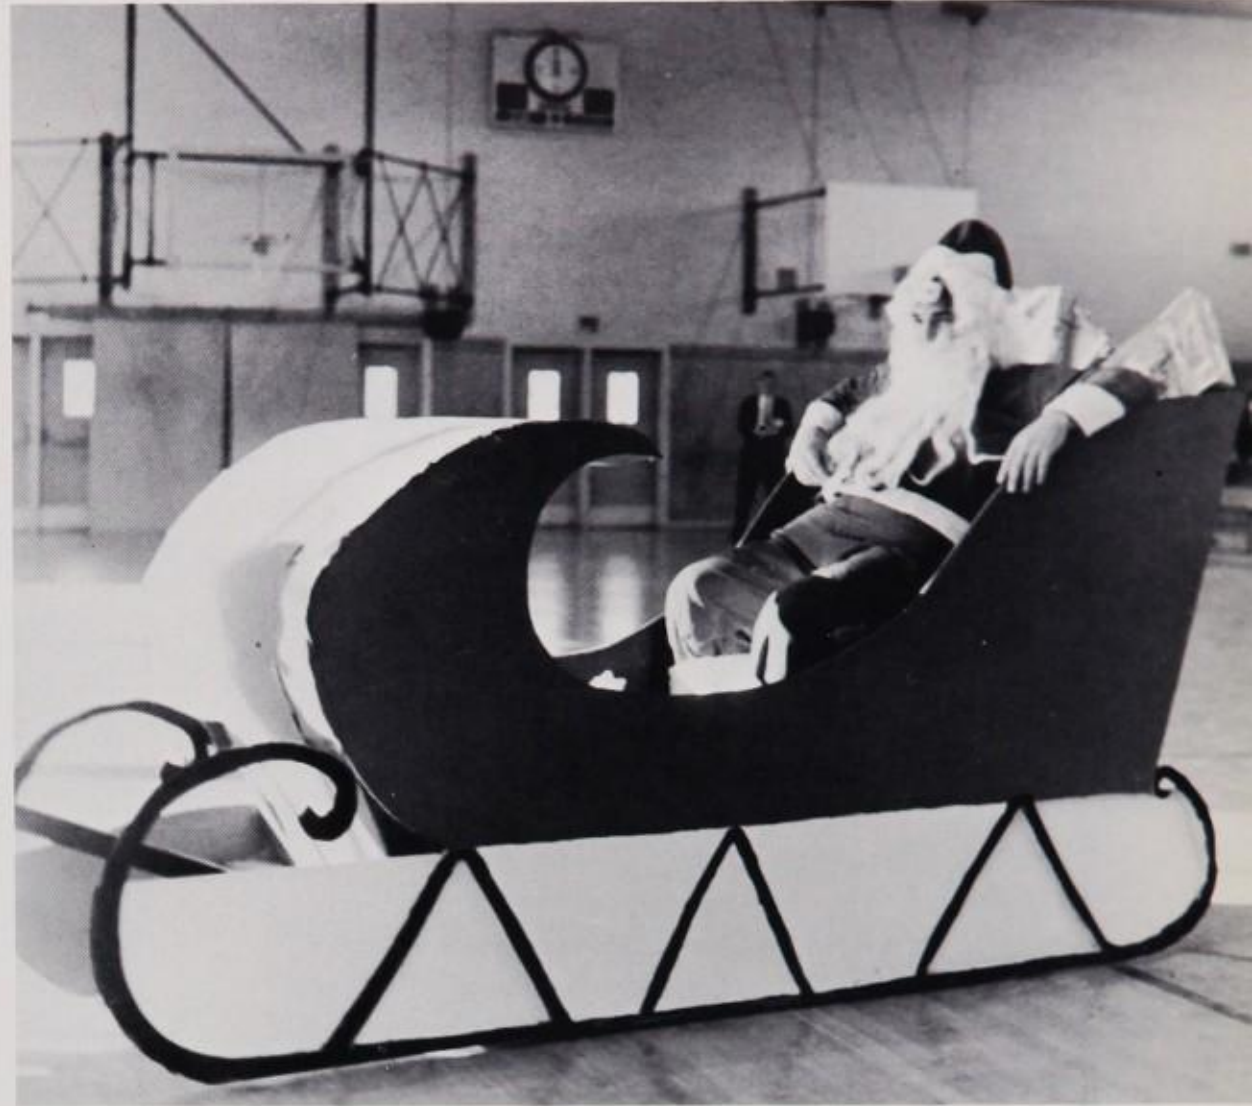

Mr. Ferri reminisced with graduates of his Advanced Chemistry class; Alfred Ressel and Ed Boyle.

Concert Mark Alumni Weekend

A new shirt and ball and chain brightened Mr. Rusch's mood and Christmas.

Jolly old Saint Rick (Kramer), complete with sled, made his traditional appearance at the Sr.-Alumni assembly.

Alumni gather in room 147 for a taste of the old life.

Tradition and Novelties

The explanation of bleeps and blurps was presented by Mr. Herb Deutch at the Tri-M concert.

Identity crisis on the pep rally floor as the frat turned cheerleaders and girls turned musclemen.

The Particle art exhibit, including Craig Marquette's "Woman and Guitar", brightened the walls of the library.

Horsing around, James Smith was a featured vaulter at HHS's first Gymnastics Night.

As the year continued, HHS students could be found at a variety of interesting and exciting events. Pep rallies for various teams ignited enthusiasm, which carried over to the victories in sports and exceptionally enthusiastic support of the teams by the fans. To celebrate the almost perfect record of the basketball team, a second Victory Dance attracted a large, lively crowd.

"Teacher against teacher" was the theme of the faculty basketball game, as students were given a chance to see their part-time mentors forsake the classroom to meet the Jr. High faculty in athletic conflict. The scene changed to man versus nature, or specifically, teacher against donkey, in the "animal" Donkey Basketball Game, which proved a hilarious off beat event with the sometime cooperative donkeys starring.

A newcomer to the HHS calendar of events was Gymnastics' Night. Male and female gymnasts performed amazing feats of skill on the ropes, mats, and other pieces of apparatus before a very appreciative crowd of students and parents.

Artistically, the year proved full with bright activities. The Modern Music Masters sponsored a stimulating discussion and demonstration of modern music by Mr. Herbert Deutch of Hofstra University. Elementary school audiences heard a more conventional style of music at the Decameron Orchestra concert in the high school auditorium. A professional group, also resident at Hofstra, they performed works ranging from Vivaldi to Grieg to Stravinsky. At the school spring concert in April, more pieces by Vivaldi and other composers were aired by the school bands and choral groups. Throughout the year, the Particle continued to add to the cultural offerings with their art exhibit in the library, poetry readings, and teas.

Closed Out the Year

Liz Converse concentrated on her part at the "Bands, Bands, Bands" concert.

A major reason for Hicksville's success on the basketball courts, Rollin McClain relaxed at the Victory Dance.

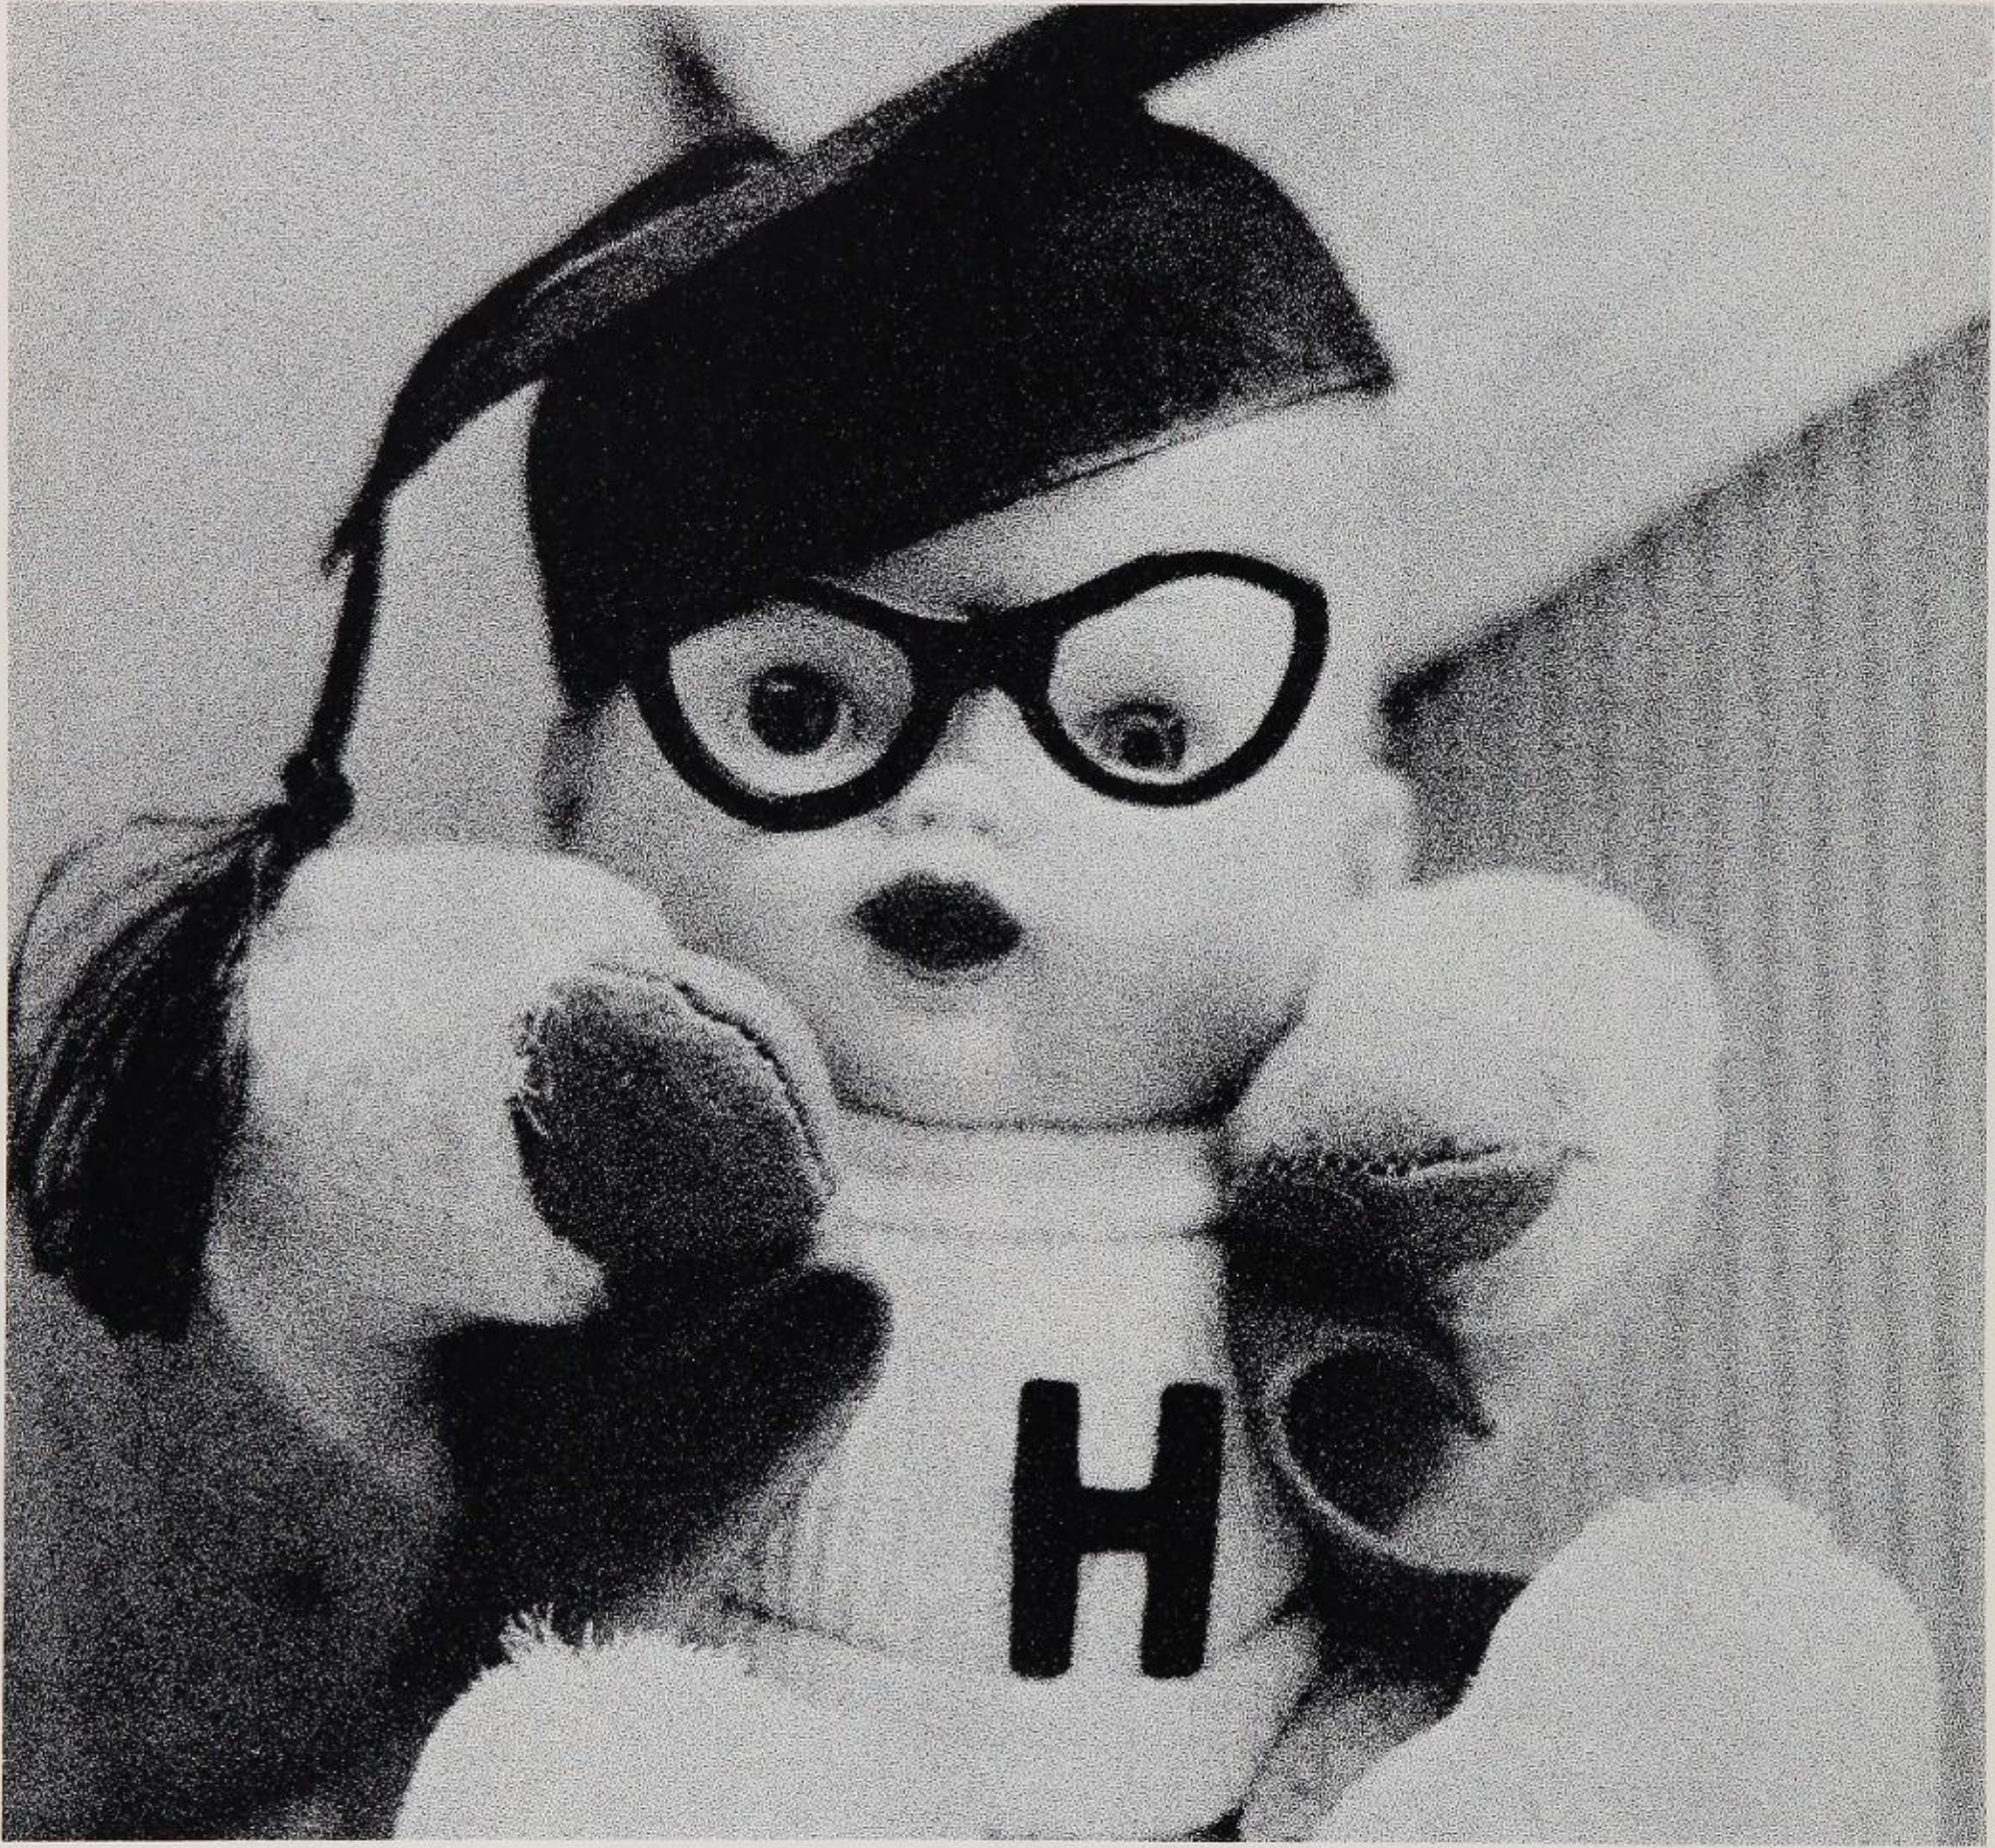

Caught up in the fervor of a pep rally, Linda Van Allen, Liz Flynn, and Chris Koenig added to the general noise and excitement.

EXECUTIVE BOARD: Mr. Jones—Advisor, Chuck Coffey—Attendance Officer, Jim Rubins—Pres., David Jungman—Parliamentarian, Peter Arakas—Chairman, Chris Clinton—V.P., Bob Gottlieb—Treas., Jane Trabich—Sec.

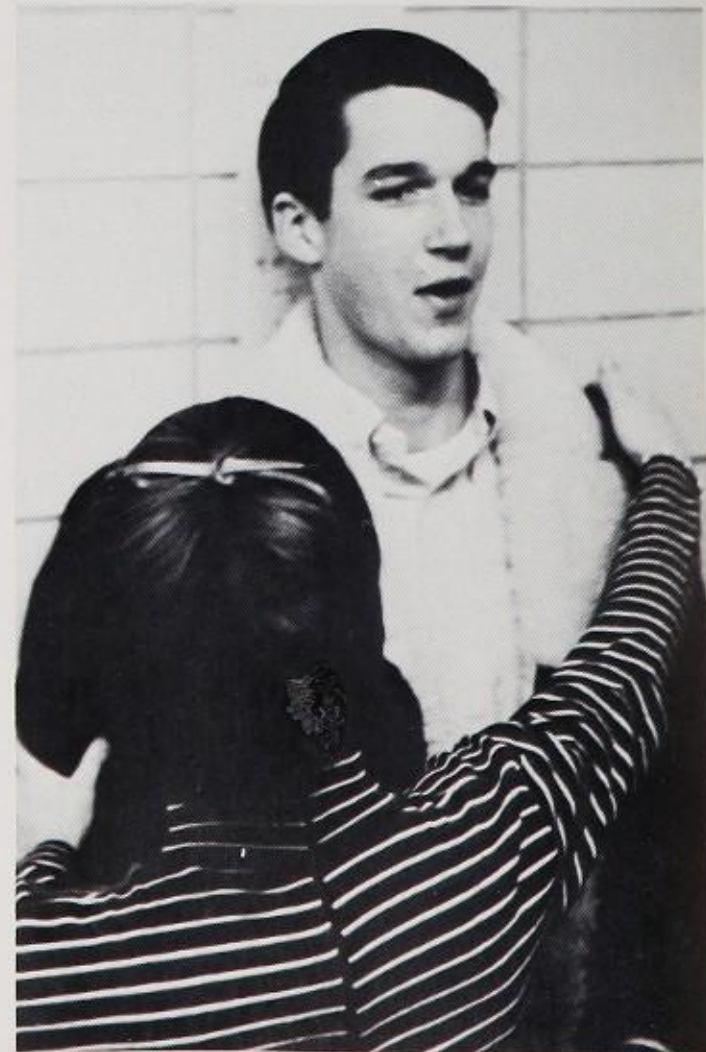

"Santa Claus," Bob Gottlieb, and his helpers, Shari Siegel and Gail Danchig loaded gifts bought by the ASC for their adopted family.

Record breaking SAT card sales and a spirited Sophomore Orientation laid the foundation for a highly successful year in the ASC. One of the very first legal matters tackled was amending the constitution of the Council. Soon the year's program moved into full swing. Pep rallies sponsored by the ASC ignited keen enthusiasm for school sports events. Planning for Senior-Alumni day and for the adoption of a needy family through Newsday kept the ASC busy at Christmas time. The Council also voted to readopt the Korean girl, Hang Nim Lee, and the American Indian boy, Jack Adaki, whom it has aided for the past three years. In January, the annual Innash dance was held. Open to SAT holders only, the dance proved to be a "winter wonderland." Early in the year an original proposal from the Council floor called for the establishment of a Student Court, which would allow for student regulation of behavior. This year the ASC, through the exercise of orderly student government, fulfilled many of the fine ideas and programs suggested during the year.

During debate on an important topic, Council members showed concentration and attentiveness.

Entrance to the Council's Innash Dance required the measuring of boys. Five cents was charged per inch taller or shorter than 5'6".

As new Faculty Advisor, Mr. Jones often offered sound advice on Council actions.

Early year elections brought candidates like Steve Van Houten before the Council to explain their position on school issues.

In the main lobby, the ASC's Christmas tree stood surrounded by presents for their adopted family.

Amy Brill seemed to enjoy making cotton candy as much as people enjoyed eating it.

A wise government knows how to enforce with temper or to conciliate with dignity.

George Grenville

national thespian society

Thespian troupe No. 2125, which forms the backbone of all school theatrical productions, served as inspiration and reward to those who worked on the shows. Much of the success of HHS plays must be accredited to the industrious and talented members. When not engaged in work on their own shows, Thespians often go to watch productions by Thespians of other schools. After all the hard work was completed the society relaxed with an induction dinner.

The technical world of production was shown by President Jerry Fischer working on construction and Virginia Christensen going over lighting cues.

Thespian officer Lorelle Krogmann and Mr. Crucilla demonstrated the acting side of Thespian life reviewing the senior play script.

Unbelievable amounts of paint were used this year to cover various sets. Much of it was applied by crew head Diane Ghisone.

From the top of the set he designed, Gary McManus directed construction to meet his specifications.

modern music masters

At Tri-M induction, Mr. Pellerin congratulated new member Amy Aaron.

After being elected by the club, new inductees stood to recite the oath of membership.

folk music and jazz club

The Folk Music and Jazz Club, formerly the Folk Music Association, put a great deal of emphasis on analyzing modern day jazz and topical protest songs. Besides the exchange of records and ideas, the group enjoyed the several concerts they attended, as well as the impromptu ones produced at meetings.

key club

Chuck Coffey, Art Lash, Brian McMenamin, and Frank Campanello aided in the distribution of candy for the club's sale.

At all home football games, Key Club members like Pete Arakas sold pretzels to the large crowds.

Larry Roby, ushering at the Variety Show, distributed programs to the audience entering the auditorium.

An important school service organization, the Key Club, can always be seen ushering at football games, basketball games, dances, and shows. This year, as in the past, the club adopted a family through Newsday's program. The club assumed the former ASC activity of polishing and caring for school trophies, and gave two scholarships at the end of the year out of candy sales proceeds.

interact club

One could first see the Interact Club in action in September when they acted as guides for new students. Soon after came their successful and well-attended "Jet-Set-A-Go-Go" dance, whose profits were contributed to best serve the school. Continuing to aid the school throughout the year, club members served as ushers at football and basketball games.

deca

Opportunities to attend training conferences, to compete in state and national contests, and to participate in an Employer-Employee luncheon were just a few of the many activities planned by DECA to promote interest and expertise in the field of business. Several members of DECA helped manage the school store, handling purchases and designing the display window in the main corridor. This year several awards were won by the club as a whole and by individual members.

DECA was also responsible for maintenance of the Comet Shop, which furnished school supplies at reasonable prices.

One of the most honored chapters in the country, Hicksville boasted such State winners as Susan Margolies, Carole Feldscher, and Peter Cramer.

More State winners were: Rochelle Riservato, Deborah Warren, Ronald Reinheimer, and Peggy Moldovack.

Increasing fervor at basketball games, the Booster Club arrived in force under their banner.

booster club

Expanded to a size which makes name listing impossible, the Booster Club attended virtually all extra-curricular events throughout the year. At boys' sports events the club displayed a newly acquired banner along with the ever present spirit. It also sponsored a gymnastics meet for girls to bring attention to this new school sport. At the end of the year "Most Valuable Player Awards" were presented to outstanding athletes by the club members. Jann Bruckner was this year's President with Marlene Schneider as Vice President. Mr. Masi acted as advisor.

Booster Club members waited on line impatiently to pay for and receive their sweatshirts.

In charge of the turmoil during sweatshirt distribution was club president Jann Bruckner.

At club Christmas party, Mr. Horne and Sharon Soroko discussed the photography issue of Life magazine.

photography club

Because of a grant of $75 from the ASC, the Photo Club was able to offer the services of the darkroom to the student body. Besides developing pictures for students and teachers, the Club aided the Newspaper and Yearbook by taking pictures and making their equipment available to these publications. The Club also set up a very popular exhibition in the main lobby where students could view scenes of school life.

David Federbush, Steve Rose, David Jungman, and Robert Gottlieb prepared to distribute newspapers to homeroom representatives. Dave Federbush and Bob Gottlieb were co-editors of this year's paper.

The COMET

First step in the production of the newspaper was the setting of copy in galleys and the taking of proofs.

This year's Comet represented a combination of original and familiar journalistic techniques. Experimenting with a new coeditorship under the joint direction of Bob Gottlieb and David Federbush, the Comet staff produced many fine issues. High on the popularity list were the all-new "Teen Scene" feature, and spotlights on such salient topics as team teaching, Student Council affairs, and the new Administration. Once again the Comet was noted for its thoughtful editorials, spirited coverage of sports events, down-to-earth humor, letters to the editor, and teacher interviews. Unprecedented blue ink, varied articles, and capable leadership helped the Comet to attain success.

quill and scroll

The Quill and Scroll is the national journalistic honor society to which outstanding students on school publications are nominated. Membership is the reward for exceptional work in journalism and promotes opportunities to increase knowledge and experience in copywriting, layout, editing and other aspects of high school journalism. The local chapter is sponsored by the national organization which facilitates communications and cooperation among the individual branches. Hicksville's members include Sandy Gold, Robert Muller, Brian McMenamin, Mark Lenetsky, Robert Gottlieb, and Gloria Melnitsky.

Particle editor Steve Morris, and staff members Lois Bienenfeld, Ronny Burstein, and Carla DeFord, pored over many photographs, selecting those which would be printed.

particle

The Particle staff reached new peaks of literary advancement by producing several excellent editions of the diverse art magazine. In addition to the publication of the magazine, the staff held poetry readings and jazz seminars. Much credit goes to Editor Steve Morris who succeeded in producing a magazine of truly admirable literary quality. Recognition must also be given to an efficient staff, and the many HHS students who contributed to the works which made up each issue of the Particle.

french club

Activities this year included a train trip on February 4, 1967 to New York City to eat at the Bourgogne Restaurant. The members then visited a French book store. Funds for this event and other activities were raised through club-sponsored cake sales.

german club

Washing cars and shoveling snow were the means by which "Der Deutsche Verein" raised money for two scholarships which it bestows annually. The club also attended a concert by the Vienna Choir Boys, and during "special occasions" enjoyed entertainment provided by the school's German band.

italian club

Starting events early in the year, the Italian club went in October to Madison Square Garden to attend the "Festa Italiana" spectacle. Projects, as the year unfolded, also included the sale of specially wrapped candy, with profits going to aid the flood-ridden city of Florence.

spanish club

The Spanish club this year heard a talk on Cuba given by two natives, Ana and Mercedes Rojas, who are presently enrolled at HHS. The whole exchange took place in Spanish. The club also helped provide a colorful welcome for visiting Chaminade students in February. Later in the year, students prepared Spanish and Latin American foods for a fiesta.

Hidden behind the tuba, Douglas Smith played along with Beth Goldmacher, Lois Bienenfeld, and Linda Hanau in the German Club Band.

Language clubs combined to welcome visiting Chaminade students. Peggy Fort, Gail Pollina, Shari Siegel, and Lisa Sachs did their part by serving refreshments.

The German Club, one of the most active language clubs, was led by President Inger Heer, seen here conducting a club gathering.

Italian Club members posed in front of a church in Rome during last summer's trip to Italy.

Ready to attack with the penultimate weapon at the Saturnalia were Tom Draycott and Steve Namowitz.

latin club

Under the eagle-like wing of Mr. Goldberg, the Latin club has continued its emphasis on the classical side of life. The annual Saturnalia in December featured toga-clad conspirators in an assassination skit, cupcakes Latin style, and an imposing induction conducted by the club's own godly elite. Ab ovo ad pomam (from eggs to apples) decreed the Romans and the Latin club complied at its traditional banquet, starting in with hard-boiled eggs and progressing to fruit. Another long-standing tradition of the club is the eagle at the Hicksville RR station, which received its annual bird bath this spring.

leader's club

Joan Yattras was one of the many Leaders Club members who sold programs to home football games at the gate.

Hawking their programs even in the school parking lots, Leaders like Manuela Sucarino helped raise money for the Club's major contribution, a college scholarship.

Reorganizing the Leader's Club this year, members were chosen on a basis of athletic ability, academic standing, leadership and enthusiasm to assist the physical education teachers and participate in all sports. Money raised from the sale of programs at football games was used for scholarships given by the club.

coquettes

Seen at all home basketball games were the Coquettes, the newly formed precision dance group. These girls, organized in the beginning of the year, spent long hours practicing. After receiving $200 from the ASC for costumes, they were ready to put on a good show at the games and other sport events, where they were always enjoyable to watch.

f.n.a.

The FNA began its year by inducting thirty new members to the club. This year the future nurses have helped the community by doing volunteer work for the heart fund. A cake sale was held to benefit the Scholarship Fund. Members also took a trip to the Queens Hospital School of Nursing.

On field trip to Queens Hospital, Cathy Brady and fellow FNA members examined various pieces of medical equipment.

Mrs. Haydu from Dutch Lane School lectured FTA members on how to make a foreign language seem less foreign.

President Judy Pardo and board members Marsha Mehr and Karen Bauer explained the procedures of apprentice teaching in elementary schools.

The Future Teachers of America Club has attracted a large part of the student body. Miss McCormick acted as advisor while this year's President and Vice Presidents were Judy Pardo and Karen Bauer. Mrs. Haydu from Dutch Lane School lectured the group as did Miss Russo and other faculty members. Highlighting the year was the opportunity to student teach at elementary schools.

At Bald Hill in Brookhaven, Britton Lindquist awaited her first ride on a ski lift.

ski club

Newly formed this year, the Ski Club has attracted over one hundred and fifty students to venture on the slopes of several nearby skiing areas. Novice skiers, under club organizer, Mr. Faust, received lectures and instruction on the hills. Several trips were made to Bald Hill on Long Island, and a few to Hunter Mountain upstate.

Mr. Faust tried hard to prepare novices in the club for the slopes.

Musical Year: Calendar of Success

Bands

COLOR GUARD—William Bress, William Griffith, Brian Lafferty, Jeff Kutner, Mark Virgilio.

From the first pre-football game show to the performance at graduation, the fine musicianship of the HHS bands contributed to the school and the entire community. The Marching Band enlivened our football games with a complicated half-time show, and, in quite another vein, played for the Memorial Day Parade and service. In a scene of the Variety Show, the Dance Band did a fantastic job with several jazz styles. They later performed at a dance band festival.

The Symphonic Wind Ensemble and the Concert Band played their December 9 concert to a capacity, and appreciative audience. Their Spring Concert, March Assembly, and N.Y.S.S.M.A. showing were of the same high quality. The bands also entertained at the sophomore assembly, junior high, and administration building.

Performers turned spectators as the band cheered at home football games.

Marching band prepares to attack the field at halftime. Keeping in step, Gordon Jenkins carried his tuba through a long football season.

Orchestra and Dance Band

The string orchestra consists of 25 strings, a piano, and one Mr. Buttice. Once a week, band members join the strings to form the Symphony Orchestra which was invited to play at the Honor Society induction, local elementary schools, as well as at two school concerts, and for the Musical. This spring, it joined the Chorale in performing Vivaldi's "Gloria." All will remember this as an excellent performing group.

The Dance Band, under Mr. Pellerin, played at all pep rallies and the Variety Show. Although concentrating on Swing, the band also played modern pieces, creating excitement in all those who heard them.

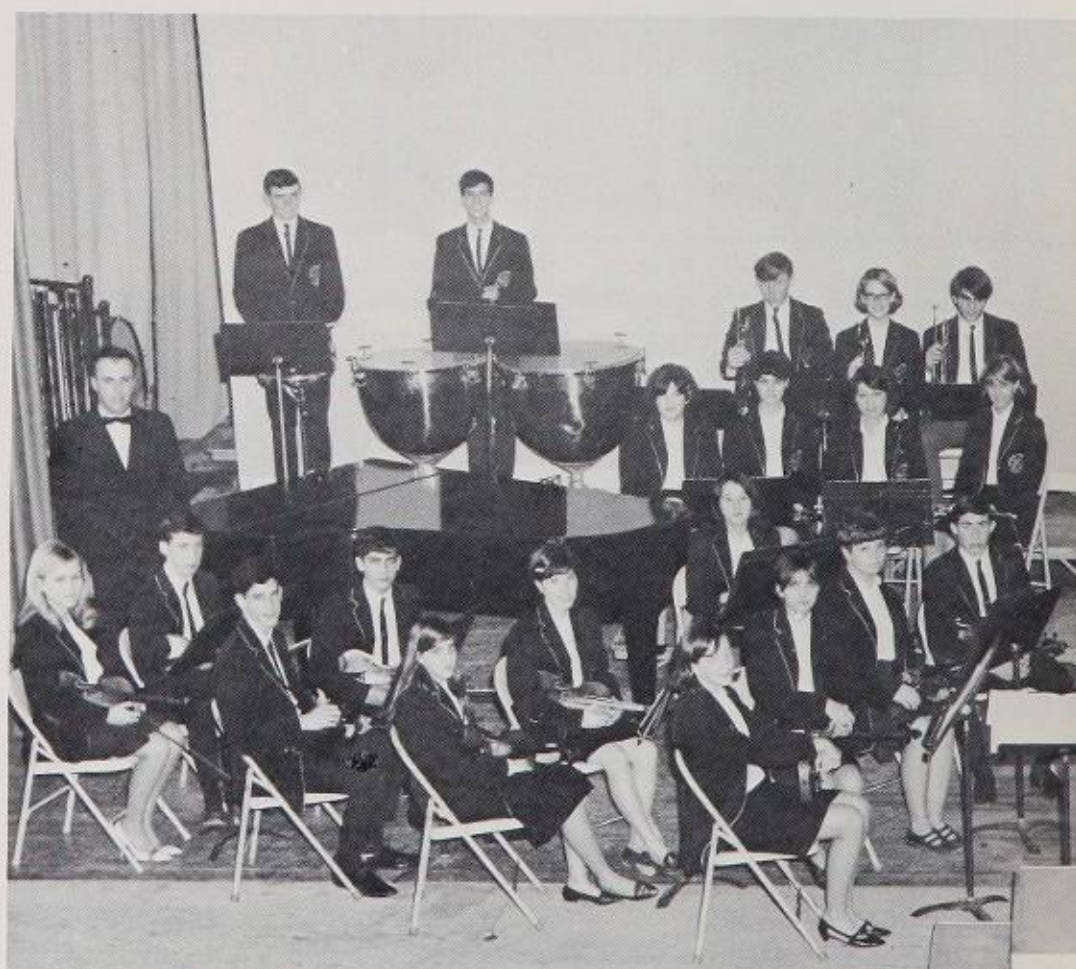

Fiddling around during their lunch period, Jack Platt and Maureen Devlin practiced their part daily with the Orchestra.

Musicians always kept half an eye on Mr. Buttice.

Carolling on the eve of Dec. 23, 1966, chorus members spread song and spirit throughout the neighborhood.

A pretty songstress, Pat Lance, was one of the many Chorale members to perform at the concert for elementary school children.

Chorale and Chorus

On stage at the Winter Concert, the Girl's Chorus showed the poise and ability born of weeks of practice.

Each day Chorale members sacrificed part(?) of their lunch period to rehearse under Mr. Arnold in scenic 178.

Girls' Chorus and Madrigal Singers

The Chorale

Under the astute direction of Mr. Arnold, the repertoire of the Chorale, Hicksville's most advanced choral group, included both classical and contemporary works. The Chorale participated in the NYSSMA festival, a county-wide choral contest, two concerts, and the Memorial Day and graduation ceremonies.

The Chorus

This year the Chorus participated in two concerts and sang light songs ranging from three Japanese Tankas to a Negro Spiritual. Also under the guiding hand of Mr. Charles Arnold, the musical abilities of the individual members are developed to enrich the whole, and are prepared for further advancement.

Girls' Chorus

The Girls' Chorus participated in the winter and spring concerts this year. The chorus, which is composed entirely of soprano and alto voices, sang pieces by Mozart, Bach, and others.

Madrigal Singers

Sponsored by Hicksville Recreation, the Madrigal Singers are a select group directed by Mr. Arnold. They specialize in works of the Renaissance designed to be sung by a few well-blended voices. This year the group gave several performances including a major concert in February at the MENC Convention in Boston.

Mr. Arnold, one of HHS's most popular teachers, drove hard but created award winning choral groups.

In concert, Madrigal Singers Eugene Malarsky, Cary Chalmers, Pat Lance, and Bev Kaye formed a harmonically perfect blend.

Tucking his chin into his collar and singing out, Billy Joel exemplified the spirit of choral excellence at HHS.

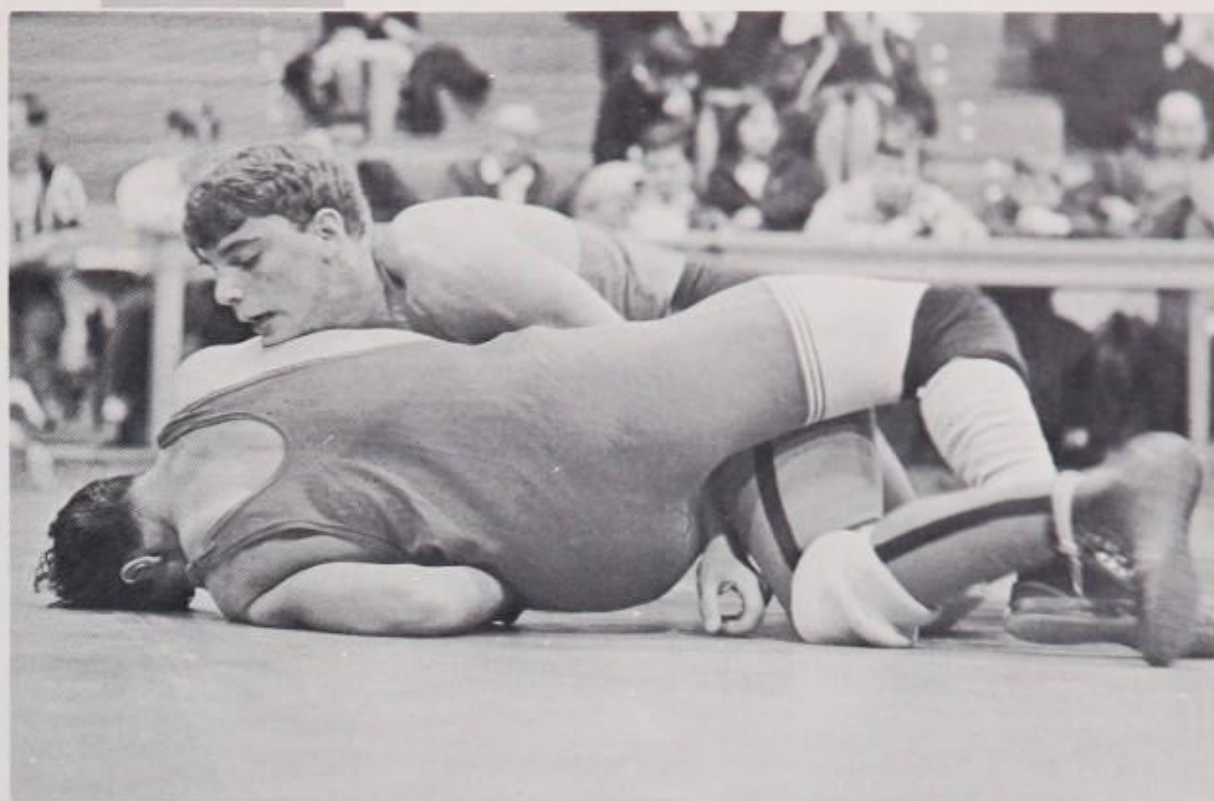

Spectacular runs, like this one by Jim Cara, helped Hicksville to the Rutgers Cup in this banner year for HHS athletics.

We're No. 1 and We Proved It

Varsity Undefeated, Win Rutgers Cup

Grantham Coach of the Year Doolittle

All Long Island, Masciello All American

JV Fares Worse, has Long Season

This year the Hicksville High School football team completed the most successful season in the school's history. Outscoring their opponents 211-45 the team won the North Shore Division I crown with a 6-0-0 record and finished with an overall record of 8-0-0, winning the Rutgers Cup as Nassau's best team!

This year the Comets featured an unusually balanced attack, utilizing both passing and running to put down the opposition. Just as important as the offense was the defense, which was superb all year. Rather than citing individual performances as the reason for the team's success, we think it is more accurate to say it was the combined team effort which resulted in the perfect record. Not to be overlooked was the excellent coaching job done by head coach Jim Grantham and his staff.

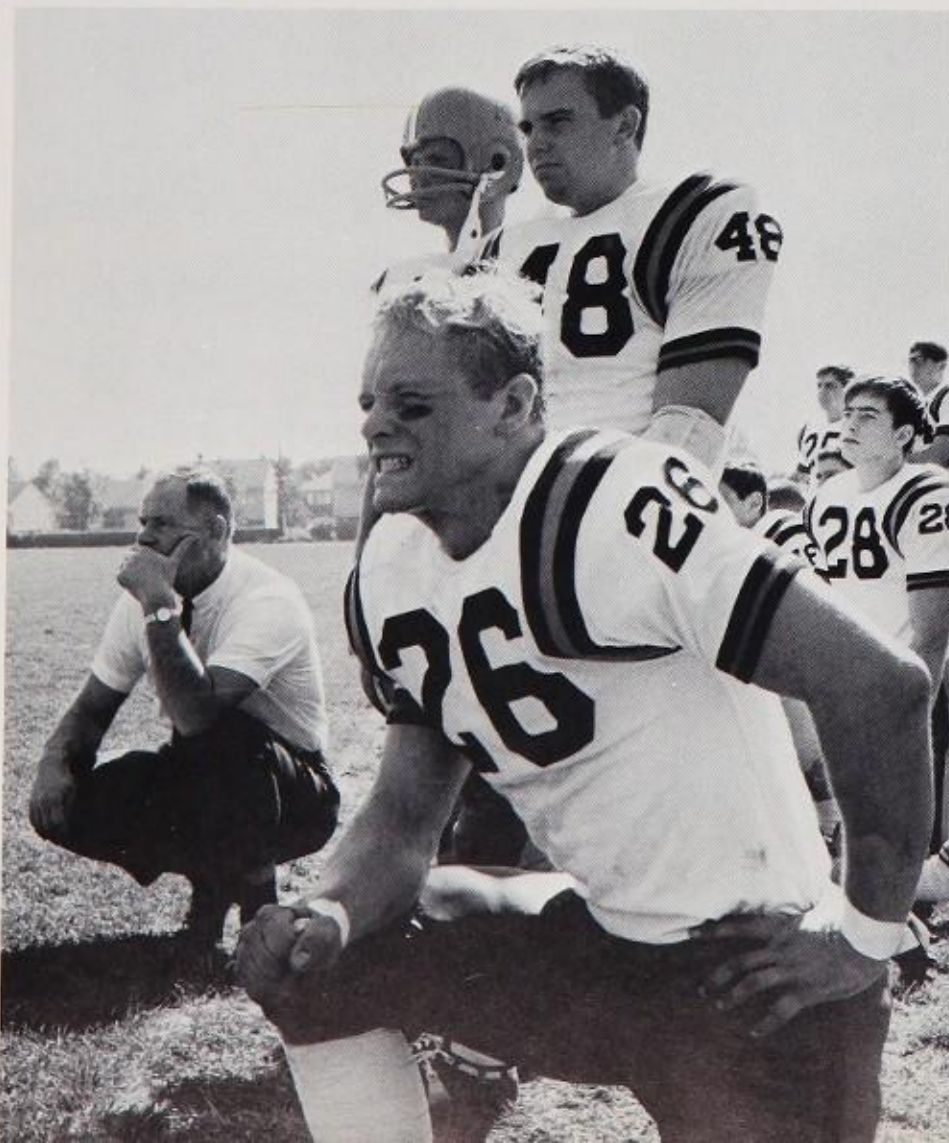

As for next year, with a number of starters returning, the future will continue to look bright for the Comets.

Although the JV gridmen seemed to be a strong squad all season, their final record was only 3-5-0.

Two good quarterbacks, Bob Paterno and Brian McCauley were used interchangeably. Rich Delia, Mike Bucci, Steve Davis and Eric Carlson proved to be strong running backs, each picking up fine yardage during the season. Rich Delia was high scorer with 7 touchdowns. Ends Tom Mirkow and Al Eades showed "fine hands" by making some outstanding catches. Although the linemen were not of tremendous size, they did a fine job. Defensively, Rich Delia, Tom Mirkow, Chris Bistany and Steve Rosenthal showed strong, tough determination with their opponents. The offense did their job equally as well.

Many of these JV players of '66 will be valuable to next year's Varsity squad.

Hicksville's version of the "Thinker", Mr. Grantham looks over the situation as John Dunaj winces when the play goes against the Comets.

Opponents found it almost impossible to get by Hicksville defensemen, especially Rick Kramer.

Setting for a block, center Don Thompson led many running backs to big gains.

Driving a long punt downfield, Jim Cara proved a more than adequate booter all year long.

Hicksville's amazing defense proved virtually unbeatable, forcing mistakes and giving up yardage grudgingly, setting up the offensive game.

Varsity Division Champs, Third in County

JV Tied for First

Hicksville High's soccer team, coached by Harry Renn, and captained by Nick Saman and Rollin McClain, won its third straight division title and took third place in the county. All-Division players Gary Bertram and Frank Lotti led the scoring attack with 9 and 7 goals respectively. Starters Barry Rosenzweig and Harold Cain, along with Steve Florio, Joe Crowell, Dick Sabatino, and Bruce Goldmacher helped complete a strong front line. Halfbacks Roger Germann, Ken Neuburger, and Bill Squire, backed by Art Lash and Doug Galke, had the strongest combination in the league, while All-County Fullback Rollin McClain and his younger brother John helped goaltender Nick Saman post 9 shutouts for an 8-0-4 record in the Comet's first undefeated league season. Versatile Joe Paesani played every position except goaltender to strengthen any temporarily weak area on the club. Hicksville lost a well-fought game to undefeated Glen Cove 2-1 in the North Shore finals, but whipped Southside 2-1 in the consolation.

The Junior Varsity Soccer team of 1966 maintained the exceptional record accumulated by previous J.V. soccer teams. Led by the fine guidance of Coach Roberts, the team established a final record of ten wins, one tie, and one loss. Although the fine end result of the season, the team ended in a tie with Syosset for North Shore Division I championship.

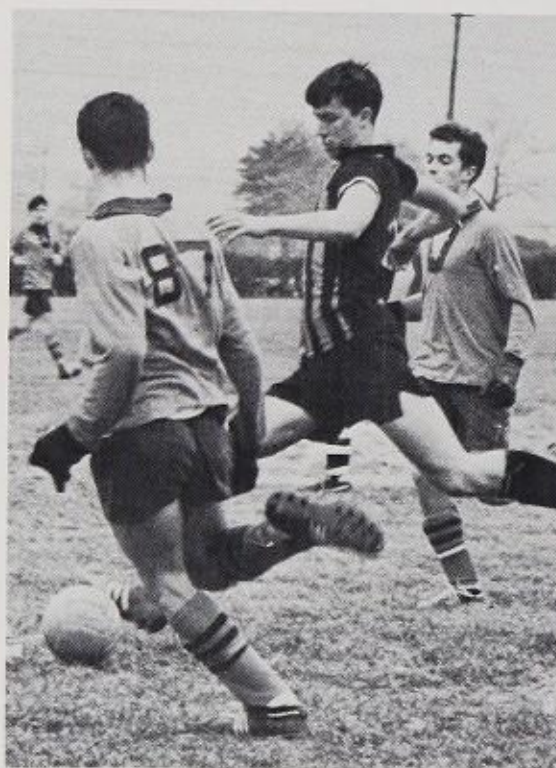

This year's offensive line showed fine ability and seems to be a good hope for the future of Hicksville High soccer. The team's scoring attack was led by Rich Hafter, with 6 goals apiece and Steve Van Wickler, 4 goals.

Teams Smash for Winning Seasons

Two energetic teams, combined with the fine coaching of Miss Malamud, made for a successful hockey season this year. Michele Terranova, sure scorer for the offense, and Karen Andreone, a powerful defense player, contributed greatly to the success of the Varsity team. It remained undefeated, also placing fourth in Clarke High School's Playday. The Junior Varsity team did well with an overall record of two wins and one loss.

to Sports Scene

An anxious moment in a basketball game is reflected in the expressions of the JV cheerleaders.

To build school spirit was the aim of the Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders. Under the direction of captains Val Scapperotti and Lynn Van Winkler they used old favorites as well as catchy new cheers to spark enthusiasm in the stands. The crowd response to their clap cheers and rousing yells inspired both the football and basketball teams to victory.

Early in the year cheerleader hopefuls attended a cheering clinic where they each mastered two cheers. At tryouts the judges, members of the faculty, selected the Varsity and J.V. teams on the basis of co-ordination, jumps, appearance, pep and enthusiasm. Because of the outstanding job done by the cheerleaders the Hicksville fans displayed enormous Comet spirit.

With cheering set aside for a moment, Chriss Trant studies the action on the gridiron.

With the exuberance that marked every appearance they made, the Varsity cheerleaders never failed to boost the crowd's spirit.

Harriers Win North

Keeping up its reputation as being one of the best in the county, the cross-country team came through with another tremendous season. Although they finished with only a 4-2 record in dual meets, they did well in the big races. In the Bethpage Invitational Meet, Hicksville finished first in the class "A" race in which 23 schools participated. They also took first place in the North Shore Championships, which had a field of 13 schools, and took second place in the county championships, losing only to Sewanhaka High School.

A great deal of credit for the Comets' success should be given to their new coach, Mr. Hilsky. He did a great job at getting the Comets prepared for each meet. Five fine runners led the Comets to their winning season. They are juniors Bob McEnaney, Craig Ibbitsen, and Dave Blair, and seniors Russ and Rick Hardmeyer. Backing up these five are a strong group of juniors and sophomores who should lead the Comets to another championship next year.

Netmen Place Strong Third in

The tennis season got off to a slow start this year as the first three matches were postponed due to incessant rain. Rain plagued the Comets throughout the entire season. A total of six matches were postponed and many more practices cancelled. In between the rainstorms Hicksville swept to overwhelming victories in the first four matches, but was narrowly defeated by Clarke in the next encounter. The Comets then lost to Syosset, who has been champion four out of the last five years. The rest of the season followed the same pattern, with Hicksville easily defeating everyone except Syosset and Clarke. Despite high hopes, Hicksville wound up in its customary third place.

Outstanding for Hicksville were singles players Bob Gottlieb, Dave Federbush, and Gary Hubbs, with records of 7-4, 7-4, and 10-2 respectively. Hicksville was also fortunate to have strong doubles teams in Sandy Gold and Gary Brennan (7-3-2), Bruce Golden and Kevin McGunnigle (8-1-1), and Bob Muller and Mike Felice (7-2).

JV Has Strong Season

The Hicksville High basketball team wrapped up its season with a 15-5 record. Mike Masciello, Jim Bergholtz, and Rollin McClain led this year's squad to a second consecutive division championship and into the county playoffs. Coach Petro and assistant Bud Bryan commanded a fine running and shooting group that scrapped and hustled against opponents often taller than themselves. With John McClain, Jack Burke, and Jeff Doolittle alternating on the court with the three high-scorers, the hoopsters played an aggressive man-to-man defense and scored adeptly from both inside and out. Their brilliant moments were matched by their dismal failure in losing all three of their overtime games.

Jim Bergholtz made the second team Daily News All-Metropolitan and All-Division and All-North Shore teams in Nassau. Rollin McClain received Honorable Mention in the News and was Hicksville's second All-Division selection.

After a slow start, winning only one of its first five games, the HHS JV Basketball team came back to win its last thirteen. The Comets, under the fine coaching of Mr. Alfieri, finished the season in first place in league play.

The key to the hoopsters' success was its well-balanced team. In the back court, Jimmy Rodgers and Doug Galke set the pace for the Comets. On the front end of the court were Dave Fyfe, and Mike Glibowski. The most outstanding figure on the court was 6'4" Don Massey. Don finished the season with a 13.5 point per game average, the highest on the team.

This year's JV proved to be one of the best in Nassau County. The players are sure to continue their fine play next season.

JV guard Doug Galke kept Comets hustling with his signal calling.

Girls' Squad

Miss Krasner, a newcomer to Hicksville's faculty, proved to be a very capable coach of this year's Varsity and JV Girls' Basketball teams. In a combined team, they defeated each of their opponents except one, and received first place at the annual Awpeny's Playday. Although both squads lacked height, they made up for this fault with fancy footwork, and skillful control of the ball by each adept member. Outstanding Varsity players were senior Carol Von Hagen and a junior, captain Karen Andreone.

This past year, both Varsity and Junior Varsity Girls' Volleyball were undefeated with identical records of 5-0 under the coaching of Mrs. Kutch. The combined efforts of the entire team led to powerful Varsity victories led by students Karen Andreone, Lorraine Rowe, and Joan Yatras. Diane Birkel and Michele Terranova made up for their lack of height with excellent set-ups, serves, and saves, and helped the team to first place at Playday.

On the JV squad, Leslie Bay and Fran Sonntag led their team through five unbeaten games. Sophomores Joan Hasbrouck and Karen Younggren displayed exceptional skills this season, and we can be sure to see them again next year.

In the Mid Island Bowl on Tuesday afternoons during the winter the Girls' Bowling Team played, throwing strikes, spares, and gutterballs. But, whether their average was 37 or 173, the girls on the team had a lot of fun.

Bowling was held on an interschool, intramural program under the supervision of Miss Malamud. The girls did have one major rival in Plainedge, which they defeated both at Hicksville and Plainedge. With several girls going into the annual A.W.P.E.N.Y.S. Tournament this year, Leslie Nickels was the Comets highest roller, taking third place.

Debbie Rodenbach captured this season's high series, high average, and high game, but since only one trophy was allowed for each girl, Janet Nathanson took high series and Karen Andreone took high game. Any girl who bowled over 175 received a silver trophy, and any who bowled over 200 received a gold trophy.

Manuela Sucarino showed excellent form as she began her follow-through.

On the alleys, Hicksville girls showed that they could more than hold their own.

Varsity Matmen Second in League

Duncan First in Nassau; Forfeits Hurt Junior Varsity

The Varsity Wrestling team completed its season with an overall record of 8-2 and took second place in the division.

At the beginning of the season, Hicksville's hopes looked good as they racked up wins. They hit a stumbling block when they were upset by Island Trees. That and the following loss to first place Farmingdale were the matmen's only losses during the season.

At the North Shore championships, Hicksville men went on to win honors: Neil Duncan and Mike Lindo—first place; Barry Rosenzweig, second place; Vito Adragna, third place. Duncan went on to win first place at the County tournament and competed at Buffalo in the State Championships.

Coach Tomaini's chances for next year look good with clutch performers Bill Krumm, George Pelcher and Ronny Carman coming back along with Mike Lindo, Tom Lee, Al Russo, and Bruce Rosenzweig.

The Junior Varsity record of 3-5 is misleading. The major problem of the team was its lack of depth. The team did not lose its matches as a result of individual losses, but because of four forfeits during every match.

Standouts on the squad were Fred Kurland, Jim Bradley, Wayne Schwacke, Tom Merendini, and Richard Leger.

Charles Schoenthal grimaced as opponent attempted a sit out in JV contest.

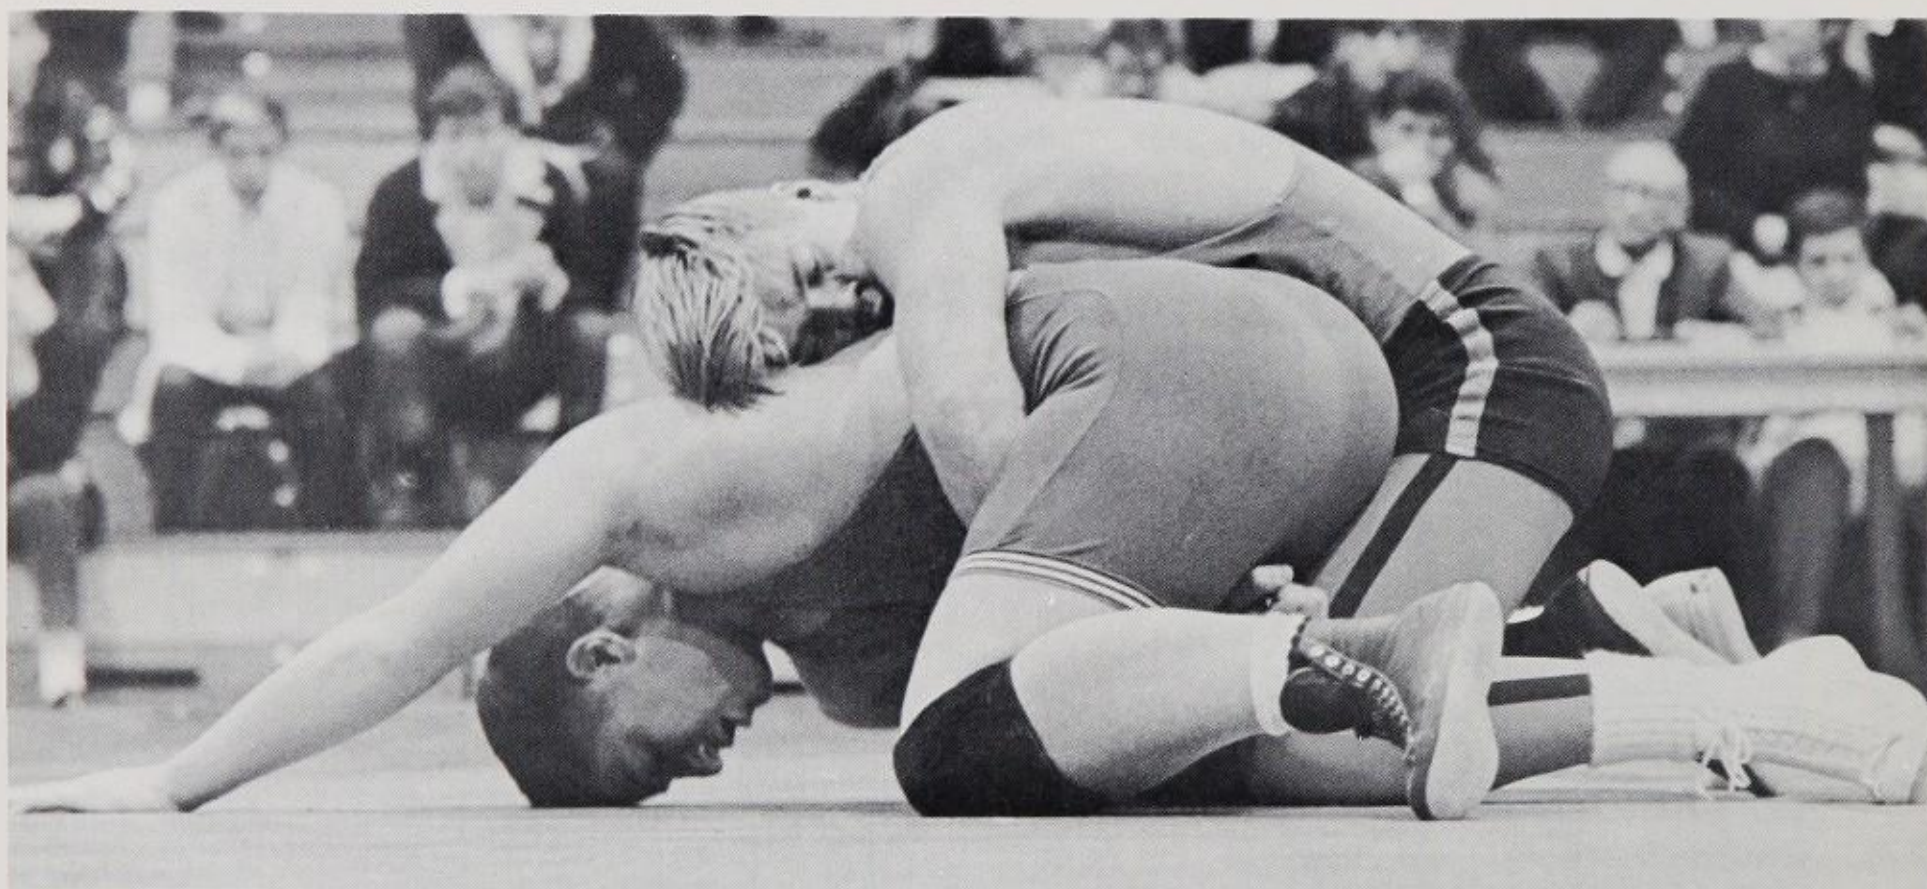

In Walt Whitman meet, Earl Pero rode out of bounds as he attempted a breakdown.

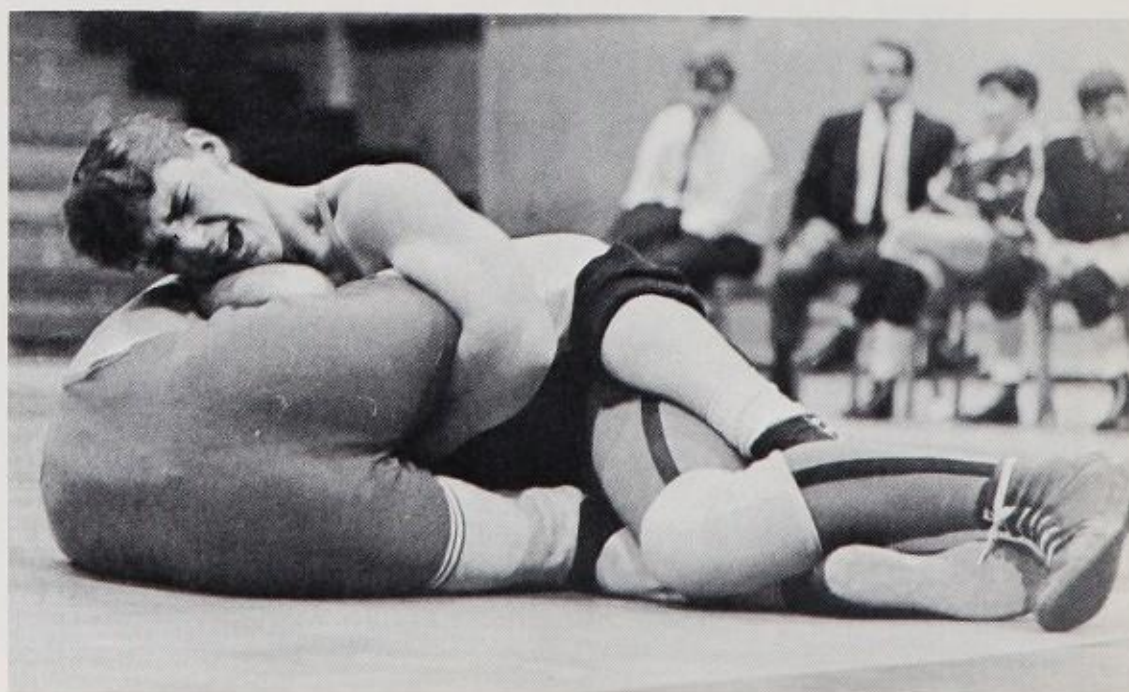

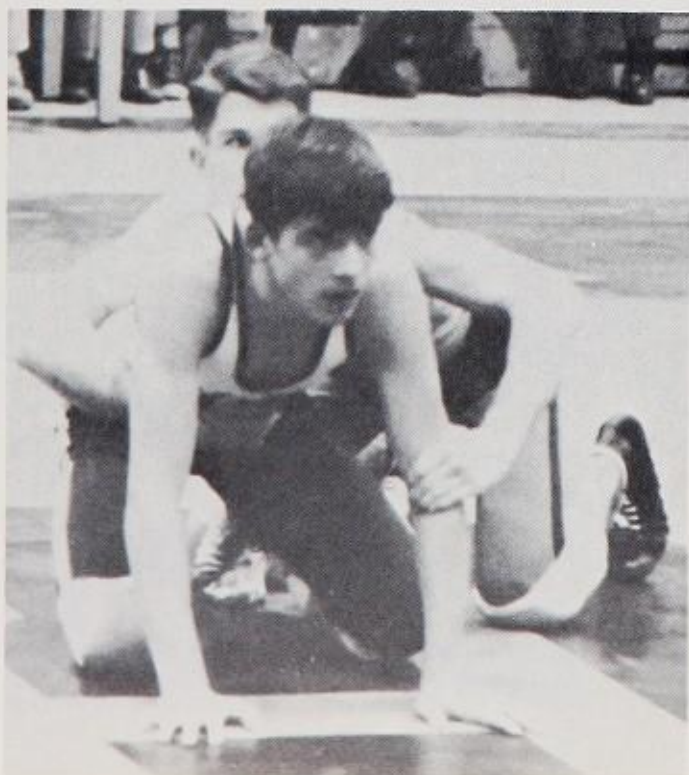

Using a half-nelson, Tom Lee pivoted over opposition for a pin and five more team points.

Nearing the close of a tiring match, heavyweight Ron Carman awaited the right moment for final breakdown.

The referee's position is the basis from which all moves evolve. From the position, Mark Walling drove his man to the mat.

With strength and agility, Bill Krumm proved a clutch grappler and a bright prospect for next year.

Alleymen Top League, Third on Shore

Coach Renn's varsity squad completed their season, compiling a 9-3 record, winning the Division Championship. The Comets went on to take third place in the North Shore competition, however, the team failed to live up to its potential in the section 8 tournaments.

Led by Captain Brad Reinheimer and Junior Jimmy Dorsey, the Varsity squad made a strong showing. Other outstanding varsity men were Bob Casertano, Mike Hermanak, Ken Neuburger and Joe Principe.

Coach Harry Renn led his alleymen, Varsity and JV, through a fruitful season for all involved.

The Junior Varsity squad had several outstanding players such as Bob Constantine, Jim Lynch, Joe Spacey, Jan Weinstein, Doug Wolfe, and Joe Coleman.

Coach Renn's hopes for success next year looks good with lettermen Jim Dorsey and Bob Casertano returning.

Gymnastics Excel in Strong Season

Carney First on Rings in State

Varsity gymnastics, under Mr. Meyers and Mr. Roberts, competed very successfully this winter, placing second in league competition. The team was led by Jim Iannone on the long horse, Gene Carney on the still rings, and Ira Woods on the high bar.

Outclassing league opposition, Carney and Woods both took second place awards in the North Shore and County Tournaments. They finished their fine season in the state meet, where Woods again placed second and Carney proved best in New York on the rings.

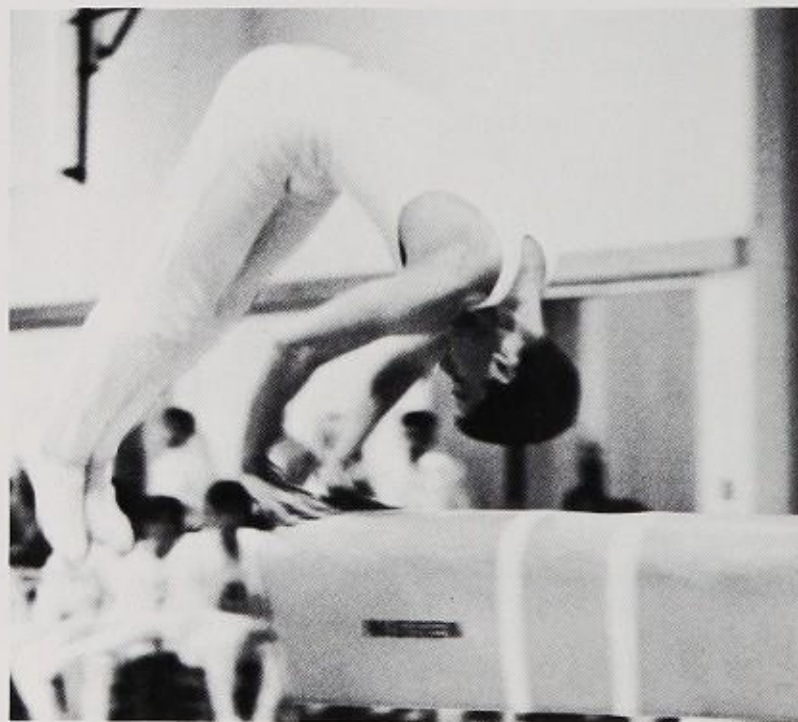

Supported by a fine group of athletes in all events, the team promises to continue its exceptional performance next year.

Gathering speed, Barry Kalmaer prepared his dismount in his free exercise routine.

"Pull! Pull! Pull!" was the cry from the crowd as rope climber Joe Merendini scaled with strength, rhythm, and speed.

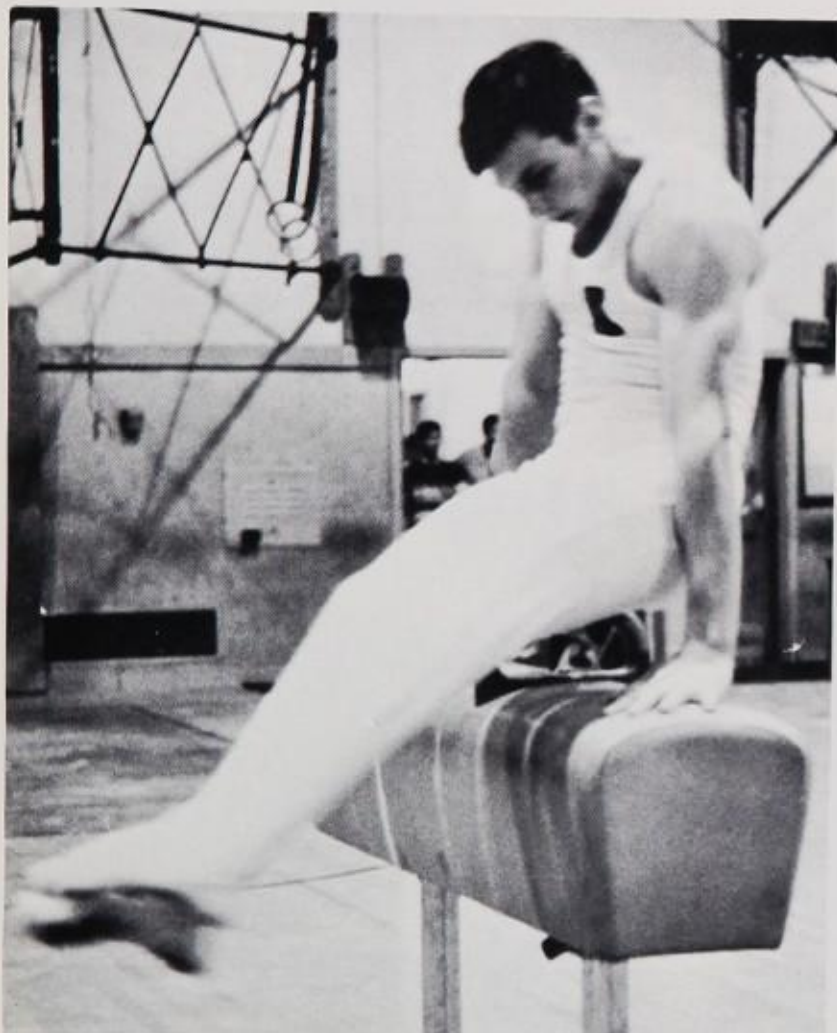

With amazing grace and balance, vaulter Jim Iannone (above two pictures) made difficult Yamashita move look easy.

Girls' Gymnastics: Agility and Grace

Debbie Doolittle, the only freshman on the team, showed her individuality in style during her free exercise routine.

More than beauty and balance,, Marilyn Dowd needed courage to attempt a dangerous back straddle catch.

Dislocate, needle, barani, thief? Yogi, candlestick, wrap? Any girl gymnast cannot only tell you what these terms refer to, but can also perform them as the result of long hours of practice. Armed with this combination of ballet and acrobatics, the girls gymnastics team vaulted their way to success, and overwhelmed competitors with their expert form. Outstanding on the team were all-around gymnasts Marg Pani, Marilyn Dowd, and Debbie Doolittle. The team has kept its undefeated title for the two years it has been in existence, under the coaching of Junior High Physical Education teacher Miss A. Resnick. The only regrets the team had was the loss of this year's senior stars Marg Pani and Kathy Seif, but it remains strong with its many excellent junior and sophomore competitors.

Carefully balanced, Marg Pani was Hicksville's best on the balance beam.

Girls' Gymnastics won 3 lost 0

Amy Brill's back walk over reflects the hours of patient practice that proved to be the best way to learn tricks.

Top sprinter Chet Schnepf complemented Hicksville's strength in distance running by winning his events.

After record jump of 11 ft. last year, pole vaulter Gary Bertram soared to new heights.

Receiving baton, relay runner George Pilko pulled away from Farmingdale opponent.

Hicksville's best distance runner, Russ Hardmeyer, helped Comets gain points.

Runners, Field Performers Paced Trackmen

This year's track team proved a strong squad in many various areas of competition. With the return of long distance runners, such as, Russ and Rick Hardmeyer, Bob McEneaney, and Dave Blair, and other stars of last year's team, Hicksville was well on its way to victory.

By leaps and bounds, hurdler Joe Merendini, pole vaulter Gary Bertram, and high jumper Rich Eith exhibited versatility in field events. The efforts of shot putters Dee Grilli and Bob Casertano, sprinter Chet Schnepf, and relayman George Pilko greatly aided the Comets.

Head Coach Grantham contemplated the performances of his athletes.

In qualifying heat for high hurdles, junior Dwight Eirich burst into lead.

Usually a weak spot for the Comets, high hurdler Joe Merendini displayed top speed and form in Comet wins.

Lacrosse Spotlited Spring Sports

Teams Tallied Early Victories

Don Reed battled opponent for control of the ball on Hicksville defense.

This year's Varsity Lacrosse squad started the season with good overall strength and plenty of hustle coming from returning lettermen like Rick Kramer, one of the league's best defensemen, and on attack, Ed Sacco, Jim O'Connor, and Dom D'orazio. Also outstanding on the team were Ray Kretz, Don Thompson and Carl Campolletano at midfield, and the highly effective junior goalie, Herb Bragg.

The JV Lacrosse team was undefeated through their first few games, playing aggressive ball. Pat Dowling and Mike Walsh, with 5 and 4 goals respectively, led the team's attack with Tom Mirkow and Dave Fyfe, while Bruce Devlin and Lynn Gish starred on defense. Rounding out the Comet squad was Ken Larsen, an excellent goalie.

Goalie Herb Bragg, a major reason for Comet victories, made many difficult saves.

Moments after the faceoff, attackman Ray Kretz fought for all-important possession.

Varsity Lacrosseman Don Thompson tried, using his stick, to knock ball away from New Hyde Park player.

VARSITY LACROSSE — FIRST ROW: G. Klein, B. Dizinno, J. O'Conner, D. Fulerton, E. Sacco, D. D'Orazio. SECOND ROW: J. Hannagan, V. Adragna, R. Kretz, D. Thompson, G. Gee, J. Crowell, M. Hordian. THIRD ROW: S. Rosenthal, D. Reed, T. Bocher, M. Bernstein, H. Bragg, R. Kramer, J. Moran, C. Bistany, C. Campolettano. FOURTH ROW: J. Sarno, J. Cicelesse, Coach Myers.

JUNIOR VARSITY LACROSSE—FIRST ROW: K. Schimek, D. Fyfe, F. Englosano, T. Lerkow, B. Dalaney, M. Walsh, S. Van Winkler, F. Melody. SECOND ROW: C. Grady, R. Del Rosso, P. Quaresimo, K. Rodner, L. Gish, R. Devlin, F. Barrella, T. Walsh. THIRD ROW: P. Dowling, K. Larsen, B. Paterno, J. Betz, T. Flannagan.

Muscling past two defenders at midfield, George Klein raced to scoop up ball.

Midfielder Charles Brady, racing up field, threw ball to attackman Steve Van Winkler.

Returning Lettermen Sparked

Taking a tight pitch, Jeff Doolittle bends back to avoid being hit.

With an eye on the runner and the pitcher, third baseman Frank Glibowski waits for possible pick-off attempt.

Coach Hogan showed pitcher Jack Burke proper footing.

JV relief pitcher Pete Furgiuela saved many games for the Comets.

JV BASEBALL—FIRST ROW: C. Bayer, B. Wandel, M. Wasiulk, M. Bucci, S. Nowak, X. Ostro, B. Rodgers, B. Breusch, D. Cook, P. Masciello. SECOND ROW: J. Bradley, R. Ljungquist, P. Furgiuela, D. Patelis, E. Moeller, B. McAuley, B. Musick, T. Navallano, J. Magnani, Mr. Hilsky.

Varsity Baseball

Whether to advance the runner or just get on base, Jim Bergholtz could always be counted on to lay down a perfect bunt.

Sizing up the throw, Nick Saman stepped into the pitch.

VARSITY BASEBALL—FIRST ROW: J. Bergholtz, R. Staffieri, F. Glibowski, S. Davis, J. Doolittle, J. Cara. SECOND ROW: N. Saman, R. Germann, M. Toich, R. Sabatino, T. Terebesi, K. Neu-

burger, Coach Hogan. THIRD ROW: K. Johnson, M. Glibowski, S. DeRosa, D. Skowronski, S. Fershleiser, M. Connors, J. McNicholas.

Intramurals Offered Wide Range

Basketball intramurals were not only a chance for girls to improve their skills or just enjoy the game, but gave the coach an opportunity to observe and choose team members. Karen Andreone (below) and Carol Von Hagen (right) eventually played on the Varsity team.

The tennis season began with players, like Amy Brill, practicing their rusty strokes.

of Participation

An important part of Hicksville's athletic scene which is often overlooked is intramural competition. Open to anyone, participation in various sports included many more people than regular Varsity play in hard-fought conflicts with their schoolmates.

For boys, the year began with basketball, and a large turnout of teams, all in quest of the school championship. A bit rougher brand of action could be found in the gym on winter nights, as floor hockey teams checked and stick-handled between the bleachers, while more daring friends tried the sport on its true habitat, ice. In spring, colorful softball teams were formed, specializing in interesting plays and close scores.

Intramural sports were even more important to girls, for from the competition the Varsity and JV school teams were chosen. Soon after school opened, volleyball teams were formed for bi-weekly games. Later in the year, dribbling and shooting prowess was shown in basketball play. With better weather, the pleasant sights of girls playing tennis, or softball, or archery returned to Hicksville's athletic fields, heralding Summer's approach and the intramural season's end.

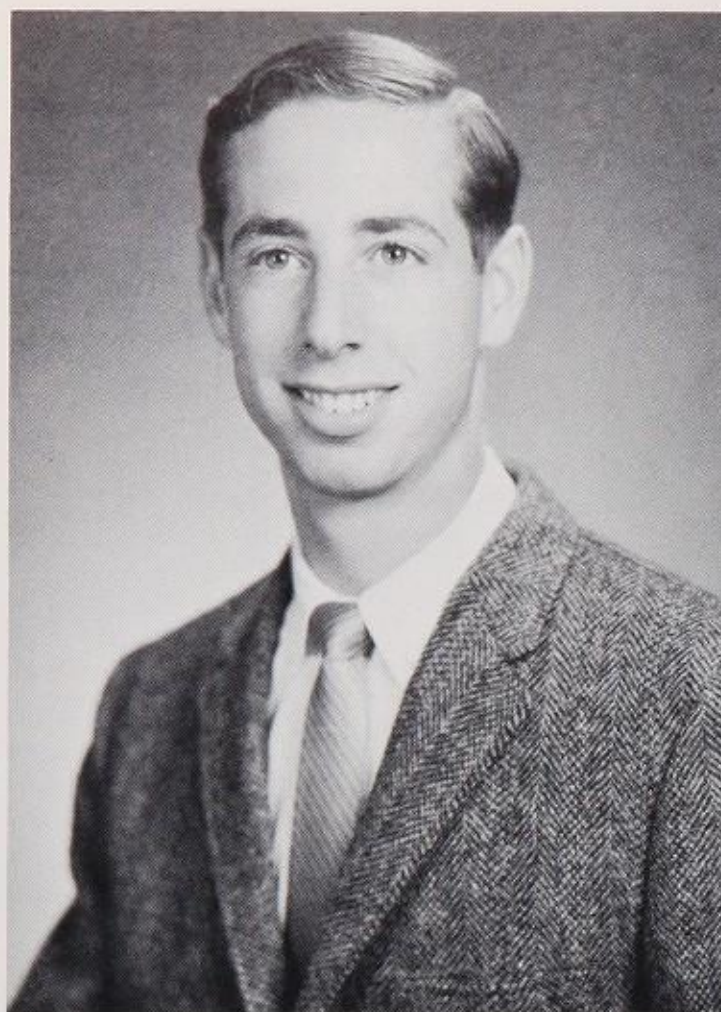

After school boys' basketball teams (below left and above) were composed of homerooms or just groups of friends. Games were hard-fought, but always friendly.

Polished wood substituted for ice, but the action was genuine in intramural hockey games.

BROADWAY AND BOERUM STREET
BROOKLYN, NEW YORK 11206

Dear Graduate:

Graduation is a most important time in any family's life. A time to reflect about the many good things that have happened in the last four years ... and a time to think about the years ahead.

I am certain that you have considered furthering your education, either in college or in the many fine trade or nursing schools which are available. Perhaps you have already made a decision ... we hope it was to continue your education.

Now here's how we can help!

Under a cooperative arrangement with the New York Higher Education Assistance Corporation you may borrow from $750. to $1,500. a year with a maximum of $7,500. for attending college ... lesser amounts for trade schools. You make no payments and there are no interest charges while you are in school. Upon termination of studies you can take up to six years to repay. Loans are made directly to the student ... no co-signers are needed. Dial the telephone numbers listed below for additional information.

May we take this occasion to congratulate you on your graduation and to wish you a successful and rewarding future.

Cordially,

*. . . the wise man looks into space,
and does not regard the small as too little,
nor the great as too big;
For he knows that there is no limit to dimensions.*
